PARLIAMENT ROW

Congress, BJP spar over Sengol as power transfer symbol

PREETHA NAIR @New Delhi

THE political slugfest over the inauguration of the new Parliament building intensified on Friday after Congress claimed there was no documented evidence of Lord Mountbatten, C Rajagopalachari and Jawaharlal Nehru describing the Sengol (golden sceptre) as a symbol of the transfer of power by the British to India.

A row erupted after Home Minister Amit Shah said on Wednesday that the Sengol, a symbol of fair governance, will be installed in the new Parliament building.

Taking to Twitter, senior Congress leader Jairam Ramesh termed the ruling party's claims of Sengol being a symbol of the transfer of power as 'bogus'.

Reacting sharply to Ramesh's comment, Shah said the Congress was reducing the Sengol to a mere 'walking stick'. "Why Congress hates Indian traditions and culture so much," he asked.

However, Ramesh maintained the claims are "wholly and completely manufactured in the minds of a few and dispersed into WhatsApp, and now to the drumbeaters in the media".

He alleged "the spectre is now being used by the PM and his drum-beaters for their political ends in Tamil Nadu. This is typical of this brigade that embroiders facts to suit its twisted objectives".

Meanwhile, 20 Opposition parties including Congress have decided to boycott the inauguration of the new Parliament building on Sunday by Prime Minister Narendra Modi, saying it should be done by President Droupadi Murmu.

Ramesh said the government is running away from the real question of why is President not being allowed to inaugurate the new Parliament building. P5

Deshpande, Jayachandra, Rayareddy, Hariprasad miss out

DEVARAJ B HIREHALLI & NAUSHAD BIJAPUR @ Bengaluru/Belagavi

THE Congress high command along with Chief Minister Siddaramaiah and Deputy Chief Minister DK Shivakumar late on Friday night finalised 24 additional names for the Karnataka cabinet.

All 24, including HK Patil, Krishna Byregowda, N Cheluvarayaswamy and Eshwar Khandre, will be sworn in as ministers by Governor Thaawar Chand Gehlot at 11.45 am on Saturday at Raj Bhavan (see list of new ministers).

With the addition of 24, Siddaramaiah cabinet will have its full strength of 34 ministers, as he along with Shivakumar and eight others were sworn in on May 20. The portfolios will be allotted on Saturday after the swearing-in ceremony.

With the finalised list, which has been submitted to the governor's office ahead of the oath-taking ceremony, Bengaluru city alone will have five ministers.

There are several new faces among the ministers, while several senior leaders, including former ministers and MLAs RV Deshpande, TB Jayachandra, Basavaraja Rayareddy and MLC BK Hariprasad, have been left out amid disgruntlement.

A surprise exclusion is that of Laxman Savadi, who won from Athani on Congress ticket after quitting BJP. Another exclusion is that of former CM Jagadish Shettar, who lost from Hubballi-Dharwad Central after exiting BJP. P4

SEVEN CMs TO SKIP NITI AAYOG MEETING TODAY

PREETHA NAIR @ New Delhi

WITH the Opposition at loggerheads with the Centre over a host of issues, at least seven chief ministers will skip the NITI Aayog's eighth Governing Council meeting chaired by Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Saturday. It comes close on the heels of 20 Opposition parties announcing their boycotting the inauguration of the new Parliament building on Sunday by the prime minister.

The no-show list of CMs comprises West Bengal's Mamata Banerjee, Kerala's Pinarayi Vijayan, Tamil Nadu's MK Stalin, Delhi's Arvind Kejriwal, Punjab's Bhagwant Mann, Telangana's K Chandrshekar Rao and Karnataka's Siddaramaiah.

The Governing Council, the apex body of NITI Aayog, includes all CMs, Lt Governors and several Union ministers.

Proposal rejected

According to sources, the Centre rejected Mamata's proposal to depute Minister of State for Finance Chandrima Bhattacharya and Chief Secretary H K Dwivedi as representatives for the meeting

Kejriwal, who is locked in a face-off with the Centre over an ordinance to control the administrative services of Delhi, wrote to Modi on Friday saying he will boycott the Niti Aayog meeting, alleging the Centre's commitment to cooperative federalism was a joke.

Mann is upset over the Centre's discrimination against Punjab. According to AAP's state chief spokesperson Malvinder Singh Kang, the boycott decision was taken as "the Centre has withheld Rural Development Fund totalling ₹4,000 crore, stopped mandi tax and delayed or shifted some sanctioned projects to other states."

Though TMC chief Mamata Banerjee had initially announced her intention to attend the meeting, she later changed ther mind.

As for the Telangana CM, he is upset with the Centre disregarding the principle of cooperative federalism and meddling in the rights of states, said sources close to him.

According to sources, M K Stalin and Pinarayi Vijayan will not make it due to other engagements. Stalin is currently in Japan on an official visit. Siddaramaiah is scheduled to attend the swearing-in ceremony of new members in his expanded ministry on Saturday. However, Chhattisgarh CM Bhupesh Baghel and his Jharkhand counterpart Hemant Soren will attend.

IMD stays with its prediction of normal rains

JITENDRA CHOUBEY @New Delhi

MOST parts of India, barring the northwestern region, will receive normal rainfall this monsoon season, the weather office reiterated on Friday.

Releasing its second long-range forecast for southwest monsoon 2023, the India Meteorological Department (IMD) said there is high probability of El Nino but an India Ocean weather condition known as Indian Ocean Dipole (IOD) will weaken its impact on monsoon rains in India.

IMD had predicted normal rains last month as well.

"It is El Nino and positive IOD this year. The impact of El Nino in central India was likely to be compensated by positive IOD. But that may not happen in the case of northwest India," the IMD said on Friday.

Most areas of south peninsular India, some areas of east-central India and many areas of northeast and extreme north India will have normal to above-normal rainfall.

However, many areas of north-west India, west-central India, northern parts of the peninsular India, and along the foothills of Himalayas may get below-normal rainfall.

Also, the month of June may not give adequate rains except in some regions such as south Karnataka and northern Tamil Nadu, Rajasthan and Ladakh.

The IMD estimates the rainfall for the season at 96% of the long period average (87%) with a 5% margin of error. So, this year's seasonal rainfall is pegged at around 83 cm.

Private weather forecasting agency Skymet had forecast below-par monsoon for the upcoming season.

Manipur protesters now target ministers

PRASANTA MAZUMDAR @ Guwahati

WITH the authorities failing to control the ethnic violence between Meitei and Kuki community people in Manipur, the protesters are now training their guns on lawmakers.

On Thursday night, an irate mob attempted to attack the Imphal house of Minister of State for External Affairs R K Ranjan Singh. However, security personnel dispersed the mob using force. The minister and his family members were at home during the incident.

The incident followed the attack on the house of the state's PWD minister Konthoujam Govindas in Bishnupur district by a mob on Wednesday night. They ransacked the house and damaged some vehicles.

Manipur Chief Minister N Biren Singh on Friday appealed to people to maintain peace and not target anyone, including the legislators. "Please come to us for anything. We are here 24X7. People can talk to me or my colleagues and share their grievances," he added.

Minister of State for Home Affairs Nityanand Rai and BJP spokesperson Sambit Patra arrived in the state on Thursday.

"They are meeting various civil society organisations to negotiate and bring peace and normalcy," Singh said. Calling upon people to show unity and not division in these difficult times, he said the issues are complicated and they could be settled only through constitutional provisions and dialogues.

Analebail villagers trying to save their only bridge

SUBHASH CHANDRA NS
@ Siddapur (Uttara Kannada)

TO save the only bridge that provides connectivity to at least half-a-dozen villages, the people of Analebail gram panchayat have been placing sandbags around its pillars since 2020.

The bridge, which was constructed in 2008 at Analebail, is now in a dilapidated condition, thanks to heavy rains in the region during the monsoon. But the people of Amegaru, Nedemane, Kyathanamane, Huljaddi, Dasabnakal and nearby villages, who had launched a long struggle for the bridge to be built, want to save it.

Work on the bridge across the Aghanashini river began in 2005. Till then, the villagers were using a temporary bridge made of areca trunks to go to Sirsi and other places. Later, they built a hanging bridge using wires, but it was washed away in the floods. "We rebuilt it in 2006 and in 2007," MN Hegde from Analebail said.

When the villagers began a movement, Rs 7 lakh was provided to construct a bridge. It remained submerged for a few days in 2015 and 2016 during the monsoon. The railings and retaining walls of the bridge were damaged because of this, he said.

"But the worst came in 2020 when the bridge remained submerged for several weeks. The pillars developed big cracks in them," Hegde said.

It was then the villagers decided to save the bridge by strengthening its pillars with sandbags. They have placed more than 400 bags around the pillars.

CANNES MOMENT

'Kennedy' premiere at 'world's best theatre' gives Kashyap a big high

NAMRATA JOSHI @Cannes

BIG crowds and long queues marked the world premiere of Anurag Kashyap's Kennedy at the Grand Theatre Lumiere, popularly known as GTL. The film played in the official Midnight Madness section of the Cannes Film Festival.

Among those flocking the GTL were Indians, including filmmakers Bobby Bedi, Vikramaditya Motwane, Sudhir Mishra, Vignesh Shivan and actor Pradeep Ranganathan.

After an earlier screening of the restored print of Aribam Syam Sharma's Ishanou — beautifully realised by Shivendra Singh Dungarpur's Film Heritage Foundation — in the official Cannes Classics segment and Yudhajit Basu's short film Nehemich in Le Cinef competition for students' films, it was the day of back-to-back premieres of two Indian feature films — Kanu Behl's Agra (in the parallel Directors' Fortnight segment) besides Kennedy. While there were walkouts and middling reviews, both films also resulted in standing ovations. Kashyap's die-hard fans (including non-Indians) could be seen taking selfies with him after the screening till the wee hours.

Cannes has been Kashyap's favourite hunting ground. Fourteen of his productions, five of them as the director (Gangs of Wasseypur 1 & 2, Ugly, Raman Raghav, Bombay Talkies and Kennedy), have played at the festival. Though none made it to the prized International Competition, they have featured across various other official sections — Un Certain Regard, Out of Competition, Midnight Madness — and the parallel Director's Fortnight and Critics' Week.

But Kennedy marked a rare first for him at Cannes. It played at GTL, arguably the best theatre in the world. "For me, it's the biggest high. It's a filmmaker's pilgrimage. We did a soundcheck on our film yesterday and were blown away by the experience," said an excited Kashyap to this newspaper a few hours before the premiere.

The festival laid it out for him with all the kingly protocols in place: arrival in limousines, welcome at the top of the stairs by General Delegate Thierry Frémaux, pictures on the red carpet and the official photocall the day after.

The generosity of the film's studios and producers was heart-warming, with a big contingent of the young cast and crew welcomed to experience their big moment first hand. "My support system is the filmmaking community. They make it possible for me to make films," said Kashyap of a show of gratitude.

For the rest of his stay, he plans to do what truly needs to be done at Cannes: watch the best of international cinema. "So far, I have seen 19 films. It's the best place to watch movies and I use all my privileges to get access to them," he said, explaining why he went missing from the film's own team party at the Pizza Cresci restaurant the day before the screening. He couldn't afford to miss Marco Bellocchio's Kidnapped.

Need separate officer to run, maintain Indira Canteens: Min

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

THE Congress party will definitely implement the guarantees given to the people, and the BJP should stop making a noise about it, minister Ramalinga Reddy said after visiting Indira Canteen at Banappa Park on Friday. He also pitched for a separate officer to look into the day-to-day activity, maintenance and running of the public canteen. He said the nitty-gritty of this will be discussed soon.

Reddy told reporters later that the promises made by the Congress will be fulfilled, and there is no confusion in this. "BJP leaders are creating confusion among the people by making false statements. Indira Canteens were started by the Congress government in each assembly constituency and near hospitals. This helped millions of poor people have a proper daily meal. However, after the BJP government came to power, the canteens were closed as funding was deliberately not provided," said Reddy.

The canteens are being revived for the convenience of people who come to Bengaluru from various towns to work, for the people of Bengaluru, especially workers and street vendors. Snacks cost Rs 5 and meals Rs 10, he added.

Reacting to the cabinet expansion tussle, he said, "Please wait. All community leaders will be accomodated."

'Do not use dilapidated classrooms'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

IN preparation for the upcoming academic year 2023-24, the Department of School Education and Literacy (DSEL) has advised government schools not to conduct classes in dilapidated classrooms.

A circular issued by the department suggested that schools put up action plans to ensure that children get their basic school needs like textbooks, uniforms, socks and shoes as well as mid-day meals, and that they are enrolled. In case of dropouts, especially due to the Covid-19 pandemic, government schools should take up enrolment drives for students.

As government schools are expected to reopen on Monday, school management and teachers should ensure that classrooms are in proper condition. Due to the monsoon season, care should be taken while teaching students, the department advised.

Underpass tragedy under Lokayukta lens

Takes up suo motu case, issues notice to eight BBMP officials

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

THE Lokayukta has registered a suo motu case over the death of a 23-year-old woman after the cab in which she was travelling in got submerged at the KR Circle underpass that was flooded due to heavy rain on May 21.

Lokayukta Justice B S Patil issued notice to eight BBMP officials, including the Chief Commissioner and the Zonal Commissioner of East Zone, seeking their response on or before June 5.

Justice Patil referred the matter to the police wing of the anti-corruption agency for probe while directing the Chief Engineer of the Lokayukta to depute an expert to support the police officer in the investigation.

"The authorities of BBMP are entrusted with the responsibility of ensuring proper maintenance of drain for free flow of water. But prima facie, there has been negligence on the part of the officers entrusted with the responsibility of maintenance of stormwater drain. In my view, every citizen who lives within the municipal area or a local body has a right to have roads maintained in a reasonable condition. This is part of the fundamental right guaranteed under the Constitution, that provides the right to life to every person," Justice Patil stated in the order.

Further, it is well known that the BBMP is collecting property and other taxes from the public. The state collects road tax also, in addition to motor vehicle and other taxes from the public, the order read, stating, "The taxes are paid by the public in one form or the other expecting corresponding facilities from the authorities/ civic bodies to make their life comfortable and hassle free in their movement."

Noting that the negligence on the part of the authorities concerned in proper maintenance of stormwater drain falls within the meaning of 'maladministration', the Lokayukta also issued notice to the Executive Engineer of Shivajinagar division, Assistant Executive Engineer (AEE) and Assistant Engineer (AE) of Sampangiramanagar Ward, Executive Engineer, AEE and AE of the Storm Water Drain division.

The matter has been listed for June 15.

Metro feels pinch of skilled labour scarcity

S LALITHA @Bengaluru

NAMMA Metro projects across the city are facing an acute shortage of carpenters, bar benders and masons, which is slowing down the pace of work on crucial lines, said top BMRCL officials as well as project contractors.

Unlike in the pre-Covid period, firms which bagged the contracts are ready to pay AC train fares to bring workers from eastern India, but skilled labour is difficult to find.

D Radhakrishna Reddy, Director, Projects and Planning, Bangalore Metro Rail Corporation Limited (BMRCL), told TNIE, "We presently require around 300 carpenters, 400 bar benders and 200 masons for our Metro projects across the city. This has slowed down the pace of work at Phase 2A (Silk Board to K R Puram), Phase 2B (KR Puram to KIA) as well as the RV Road to Bommasandra (Reach-6) lines, he added.

With Metro network expanding across the country, there is a huge demand for workers with specific skills and some are moving over to Bhopal, Chennai, Mumbai, New Delhi and Ahmedabad Metro projects, Reddy said.

A contractor carrying out works on the Silk Board to Kadubesanahalli package of Phase-2A confirmed the shortage. "Most of the skilled workers for our projects come from Jharkhand, Odisha, West Bengal and Bihar. We have around 300 labourers on the job now and expect another 250 to join us anytime between June 10 and 15. We definitely require them and are willing to pay them the AC fare, or Tatkal fare, or whatever transportation costs they incur. We never used to pay travel fare before Covid, but there is a shortage now," he said.

The festive season, which began with Holi in eastern India, continues and that is also a reason for workers who had left not returning, the contractor added.

Another contractor carrying out works on the airport line said, "Steel benders and skilled people who can do the stuttering jobs are crucial for our projects. Whether it is U-girders, pier cap or pile cap, we need to do the formwork (shuttering) between readying the steel and concreting. We are managing with the present labour and are trying our best to bring in more numbers from the eastern states."

The shortage is felt by all contractors and in all projects across the country, he added.

BMRCL Managing Director Anjum Parwez said hundreds of workers left for their hometowns during the Covid period. "Some have found alternative options and do not want to return now."

Metro projects have a 2024 deadline.

MANGO MELA KICKS OFF; HOPCOMS HYPERSTORE ON THE CARDS

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

THE much-awaited annual mango and jackfruit mela kicked-off at Lal Bagh on Friday. The fair was thrown open to the public by minister Ramalinga Reddy.

As many as 17 varieties of mangoes are on display at the venue and are being sold at 200 Horticulture Producers Cooperative Marketing and Processing Societies (Hopcoms).

Meanwhile, Hopcoms managing director Uma Shankar Mirji said a hyperstore will come up on the head office in six months to help boost sales. He added a Rs 1-crore grant was released by local MLA Uday Garudachar.

The MLA said once the old structure, where fruits and vegetables are on display and sale, is replaced with a new one, it will look attractive. "Many people come to Lal Bagh and also visit Hopcoms. If the place is made more attractive and more stalls are added, it will eventually boost sales. As per Hopcoms, 9,000 members are spread across Ramanagara, Bengaluru Rural, Bengaluru Urban, Kolar and Chikkaballapur. If Hopcoms improves and sales shoot up, it will benefit farmers," he said.

Regarding the fair, Mirji said they hope to sell 1,000 tonnes of mangoes.

Daily Starscope

PETER VIDAL

27th May: It's Saturday - and the end of the week! Saturday is sacred to the planet Saturn, which is said to bring difficulties and obstacles. Perhaps that's why the Jews picked it for the Sabbath - their day of rest and religious observance. After all, if doing things is a problem, best to do nothing!

ARIES
(Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
The Sun is now highlighting everything in your life that is expensive, not to say downright extravagant. You'll probably be much more concerned to save than spend, though, and extracting your money could be like getting blood out of a stone! Happily, you have a sense that the world is generally a rather more friendly place.

TAURUS
(Apr. 21 - May 21)
As it happens, this is a moment for traditional pursuits, if only because Saturn, symbol of all old-fashioned things, is lurking in the background. There is a shortage of profound planetary influences at the moment, so you may happily enjoy being superficial.

GEMINI
(May 22 - June 21)
This is one of those rare periods when partners or close companions actually pay attention. You may have to use a small amount of emotional blackmail, or make a tiny scene but, one way or another, others should recognise that you must now be noticed.

CANCER
(June 22 - July 23)
Things are generally looking quite slack, which doesn't necessarily mean that you're not busy, only that there is an increasing sense of woolliness and uncertainty. If you're in a gambling mood then you may take an emotional risk, but don't play with someone else's feelings.

LEO
(July 24 - Aug. 23)
Pleasantly social influences include a slight chance of a difference of opinion, but no other signs of strain. It's not the best day for practical chores, although it's a great time to be irresponsible! You must be prepared for the consequences, though.

VIRGO
(Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
Special indications in parts of your chart concerned with money offer a strict warning against financial risks. You should only proceed if you are happy not to receive any return other than pure satisfaction or romantic contentment. In other words, don't hope for cash prizes!

LIBRA
(Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
There is an awful lot to say for pressing ahead with travel plans, although it's not clear that you'll be going on a physical journey. It might be a spiritual adventure which calls you. Also, you may make contact now with family members who are overseas or far away.

SCORPIO
(Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
Business opportunities flow thick and fast, but may be difficult to spot, let alone grasp. This could be a better day for leaving certain fantasies as just that - dreams to be treasured but not implemented. Plus, perhaps a friend can provide the missing piece in an emotional jigsaw.

SAGITTARIUS
(Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
The Sun is inaugurating a new period of potential and possible achievement. This doesn't mean, by the way, that everything will be easy, but that even apparently trivial events will have a significance which will not be immediately clear. To an extent, you have to trust in the future.

CAPRICORN
(Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
Focus on everything in your life that is going well. After all, every cloud has a silver lining. Cultivate patience and realise that now is the time to be compassionate, caring, and almost saintly. The more love you put out, the more you can expect back. It's simple, really!

AQUARIUS
(Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
You may be perfectly tuned in to virtuous activities, perhaps doing whatever you can to help others out of a tricky situation. When relaxing, you might take your pleasures with a dash of decadence. Most of all, you love a good story, and you may be spinning someone a yarn.

PISCES
(Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
When you're in a tight spot you usually believe that something will turn up and save the day. This is actually one of your most delightful characteristics and, believe it or not, it is at times like these that your faith pays off in some curious style.

Salmonella finds ways to stay on in human body

Develops protein shield to evade defence by immune cells

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

Researchers from the Department of Microbiology and Cell Biology (MCB) at the Indian Institute of Science (IISc) have discovered that Salmonella enterica, a bacterium that causes diseases such as fever, diarrhoea, abdominal cramps and typhoid has developed clever strategies to evade the body's defences. The bacteria protects itself using a protein called SopB, and if production of this protein is stopped, the salmonella will clear itself out.

The research 'Microbes and Infection' revealed that when salmonella enters the human body, each bacterial cell resides within a bubble-like structure known as salmonella-containing vacuole (SCV). To fight this infection, the immune cells in our body produce certain defence mechanisms to break down these SCVs and fuse them with cellular bodies called lysosomes or autophagosomes, which destroy the bacteria.

However, the bacteria has now developed a shield, making it difficult to fuse with lysosomes and has also found its own way to stop one's body from producing more lysosomes that help develop immunity to bacteria.

Dipshikha Chakravortty, professor at MCB and corresponding author of the study said, "Salmonella gets inside the organs and because of their prolonged strategy to survive, it's very difficult to remove these bacterial cells as they keep producing the SopB protein. A strong drug is then needed to attack the bacteria to destroy it." She added that the institution will be doing further research on how the production of SopB protein can be stopped in one's body. The experiments were carried out on mice as they share mammalian features with humans and suffer from many of the same diseases. Maintaining basic hygiene and avoiding cold storage food can help avoid contracting the bacteria.

Techie cheated by man she met on dating app

PRAVEEN KUMAR
@ Bengaluru

A 33-year-old software engineer approached the police after she was cheated by a man she met on a dating app. After chatting briefly, the duo met at a hotel in Sampigehalli, during which the woman discovered that the accused faked his name, profession and place of stay. Despite this, she got close to him as he promised to marry her, after which he allegedly extracted money from her on the pretext of treating his mother in the United Kingdom.

When the accused, Mudasir, a resident of Bagalur, started avoiding her, she looked him up on social media and found that his mother was in Kashmir, and he was with his wife in Bagalur.

"The victim met the accused, who introduced himself as Anirudh through the dating app in July last year. On January 20, the accused allegedly sought Rs 1 lakh for his mother's treatment in London, and on February 27, after informing about his mother's passing, he went incommunicado. Suspecting deceit, she searched his social media accounts and contacted his brother, who informed her of their mother's whereabouts, said an officer who is part of the investigation. When Mudasir did not return her money, the victim, a resident of Bhuvaneshwarinagar, filed a complaint with the police on Wednesday. She said they had also been involved in a physical relationship.

Amrutahalli police registered a case and arrested the accused, who claims to be an adviser for a realty firm in Dubai. Further investigations are on.

SWEET REWARD: LINGAYATS BAG SEVEN BERTHS

Can have a bearing on Lok Sabha polls too

BANSY KALAPPA @ Bengaluru

IN the run-up to cabinet formation, the Veerashaiva Lingayats were expecting five or six berths, but that they managed to get seven in the ministry is a statement in itself. It appears that the Congress leadership has understood the importance of the Lingayat community, keeping the Lok Sabha polls in mind.

The names of Shamanur Mallikarjun (Davanagere North), Eshwar Khandre (Balki-Bidar), Laxmi Hebbalkar (Belgavi Rural), Sharanprakash Patil (Sedam-Gulbarga), Sharanabasappa Darshanapur (Shahpur-Yadgir) and Shivanand Patil (Basavanabagewadi-Bijapur) are in the list of 24 ministers. These are in addition to MB Patil from Babaleshwar who was already sworn in as minister. Besides, HK Patil from Gadag is assumed to be a Lingayat locally.

There is also talk of accommodating Jagadish Shettar in an important post, perhaps as head of the Planning Commission with cabinet status, since he can easily influence the election outcome in the 2024 parliamentary polls, in many constituencies. MB Patil, SS Mallikarjun and Eshwar Khandre are also tipped to get important portfolios.

Numbers wise, this is the biggest representation of Lingayats in a Congress government in the recent past. The Congress-JDS coalition government had six Lingayat ministers, while the 2013-18 Congress government had seven Lingayats. This is no match for the BJP, which had eight Lingayats, including then CM B S Yediyurappa.

It is well known that the Lingayat community is numerically the most powerful in Karnataka, and while population-wise it accounts for 17-20 per cent, its influence extends over another 5-6 per cent because of its service networks like Dasoha and other services rendered through institutions.

Political analyst B S Murthy said, "While ensuring the number of seven ministers is maintained, efforts have been made to accommodate all sub-castes and regions from among the community members. Accommodating Jagadish Shettar could help the party in the LS polls.''

Analysis of election results has shown that Lingayats have supported the Congress in many constituencies, and the party is working hard to restore the 1989 equation, when Lingayats supported the Congress party overwhelmingly.

Khandre, who is general secretary of the Veerashaiva Mahasabha, told TNIE, "There are 34 community leaders who have won elections. We will all work together to take the party forward."

Hariprasad likely to resign as MLC

BANSY KALAPPA @ Bengaluru

SPECULATION is rife that an upset BK Hariprasad is likely to resign as an MLC from the Congress. Hariprasad, a senior Congress leader who has served as party general secretary in 16 different states, and as Opposition Leader in the Council, could not find a place in the ministry.

When contacted, Hariprasad refused to comment.

Instead of Hariprasad, NS Boseraju, who belongs to the Raju community and is not a member of either House, has been accommodated.

Sources said Boseraju, who was an aspirant for Raichur parliamentary seat, was denied a ticket from Raichur City, because some leaders insisted that another aspirant, Yasin, be accommodated.

Senior Congress leader BK Hariprasad has served as party general secretary in 16 states | EXPRESS

The Congress leadership had promised Boseraju that he would be made minister when the Congress came to power.

Accordingly, Boseraju was accommodated. The rule is that anyone who is minister will get to head the House, and Boseraju would get to be leader of the house. Boseraju will have six months to get elected as MLC.

There was more unhappiness in the Congress Council leadership, because none of the senior leaders who were aspiring to be ministers, like Saleem Ahmed, PCC working president, and Prakash Rathod, Chief Whip, could be accommodated. Some who had put in a lot of effort to get elected from local bodies and were ministerial aspirants, were left out.

'Govt doing hate politics to mask failure'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

BJP leaders on Friday hit out at the state government over the delay in implementing the five guarantees and accused them of trying to divert people's attention by resorting to "hate politics".

Former CM Basavaraj Bommai said there are differences between the two leaders – Chief Minister Siddaramaiah and Deputy Chief Minister DK Shivakumar – in the government which rather looks like a coalition government. Instead of focusing on development and trying to resolve people's problems, the ministers have resorted to hate politics, he said.

The government is filing cases against those who criticise them, he said. Within a few days, the government which has got a thumping mandate from people will also face their ire, he said. "The ministers are talking about banning RSS knowing fully well that the state government has no right to ban any organisation. Chief Minister Siddaramaiah must clarify that if he agrees with his minister," Bommai said.

The former CM said people are demanding immediate implementation of the five guarantees that Congress had announced in the run-up to the Assembly elections. If Congress betrays the trust of the people, the BJP will stand with them, he said. The Congress had promised to provide benefits to all, but now they are talking about conditions, he added.

Senior BJP leader and former deputy CM R Ashoka said that this current dispensation has two steering wheels. "Before the elections, the Congress had promised to implement the guarantees within 24 hours of forming the government, but they are yet to do it," he said. The BJP leader urged people not to pay their electricity bills and women travelling in state transport corporation buses not to buy tickets.

"They are talking about banning RSS to divert people's attention from their failure to implement the guarantees. The Congress could not do it when they had a full majority, what can they do now? If they ban RSS, the government will collapse in three months," he said.

Women throng cyber centres to put papers in order

Kolar/Chikkaballapur: Chaos prevailed in Kolar and Chikkaballapur districts as women thronged computer centres to link Aadhaar and PAN cards and also to change head of family name in ration card for Gruha Lakshmi scheme. Meanwhile, following complaint from revenue officials, police have filed a case against the owner of the cyber centre for allegedly collecting Rs250 for rectification in ration cards and also Aadhaar-PAN link. According to sources, as there was a rumour that only those who have BPL cards and their Aadhaar linked with PAN cards will get Rs 2,000 under the Gruha Lakshmi scheme, thousands of women thronged the computer centre for linking the cards.

> [Chief Minister] Siddaramaiah and [Deputy Chief Minister] DK Shivakumar had promised that all guarantees will be implemented within 24 hours of forming government. However, the guarantees are yet to be implemented. This shows their promises were false. Siddaramaiah had said free electricity would be given, but now, they are coming up with conditions. — BJP state president Nalin Kumar Kateel in Mangaluru

Ramanath demands SIT probe into 'political killings'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Mangaluru

FORMER minister Ramanath Rai on Friday demanded that the state government form a Special Investigation Team (SIT) to probe into politically-motivated communal killings in Dakshina Kannada.

Addressing media persons at the district Congress office, the KPCC vice-president said that many "innocent" Hindu and Muslim youths like Sharath Madivala, Praveen Nettaru, Ashraf, Jaleel, and Masood have lost their lives in politically-motivated killings in the district.

"There should be a thorough investigation into these killings. We will soon submit a memorandum to the newly-formed state government. The investigation should unearth who are behind these killings. BJP and SDPI workers might have been involved, but not a single Congress worker has been named as an accused. People deserve to know the truth," he said.

He also took strong objection to BJP Belthangady MLA Harish Poonja's controversial statement that Siddaramaiah has killed 24 Hindutva activists. He said that Congress will file a defamation suit against Poonja. "There should be an investigation against him and the culprits should be punished," he said. An FIR has been filed against Poonja after a video of him making the statement during a victory celebrations on May 22 about Siddaramaiah went viral. He has been elected from Belthangady in Dakshina Kannada for the second time in the recent elections.

BJP state president Nalin Kumar Kateel said in Mangaluru that FIRs against Poonja and former minister Dr CN Ashwath Narayan was Congress way of playing "hate politics", adding "this government would not stay for long".

STATE Sugarcane Growers Association president Kurubur Shanthakumar said the government must withdraw the decision to link farm pump sets to Aadhaar cards. "There are 40 lakh farm pump sets in the state. On the pretext of linking them with Aadhaar cards, the government is planning to privatise power supply, which will become a burden on farmers," he said.

Speaking to media persons in Belagavi on Friday, he said, "Government has instructed the KERC to link all farm pump sets to Aadhaar after which the farmers will be given subsidies on power bills. Therefore, we met Chief Minister Siddaramaiah at Vidhana Soudha on May 24 and have requested that the decision be withdrawn."

Shanthakumar alleged that farmers are being denied education loans for their children and crop loans on the basis of CIBIL score. "The government should change policies to provide loans to farmers. The CM as an opposition leader had promised to withdraw the three farm bills. All these issues were discussed with Siddaramaiah and he has responded positively," he said.

Cong chose winnability than loyalty, say pundits

SHETTAR is likely to be made an MLC and appointed as Deputy Chairman of State Planning Commission.

Meanwhile, party loyalist and former MLC NS Boseraju, who is not a legislator, is on the ministers' list. Sources said he will be nominated as MLC in six months. The decision to include him as a minister has been made considering that he is AICC secretary-in charge of Telangana, which is headed for polls later this year.

The exclusions and new faces among the ministers are aimed at fetching more votes in Lok Sabha elections. While there was speculation that some ministerial berths would be left vacant, the brass has decided to fill all 34 to prevent aspirants from mounting pressure and affecting the government and the party's functioning.

Despite hectic lobbying by old guard, the Congress leadership is believed to have dropped the veterans to infuse young blood. The party has gone with leaders' capability to win polls in future rather than mere loyalty, said political pundits.

Most of the new and young faces, including two-time Hebbal MLA Byrathi Suresh, K Venkatesh, Rahim Khan, Laxmi Hebbalkar, Madhu Bangarappa and B Nagendra, have emerged as 'assets', expected to give it a fillip in the LS polls.

Both Siddaramaiah and Shivakumar stuck to one point in choosing ministers: "To win more LS seats." They met and "promised" ex-AICC chiefs Sonia Gandhi and Rahul Gandhi that this would deliver more seats in LS polls. Congress balanced by inducting seven Veerashaiva Lingayats, five Vokkaligas, including DCM, six SCs, three STs, two Muslims, one each from Mogaveera, Ediga, two Kuruba, Uppara, a Maratha Lad, Jain and Raju Kshatriya community leaders.

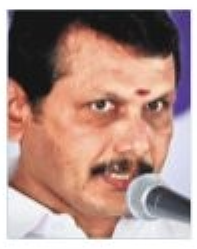
I-T RAIDS 50 PLACES LINKED TO TN MINISTER

BJP-led Union govt using Central agencies to avenge Opposition parties, says DMK

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Karur/Chennai

MULTIPLE teams of Income Tax officials conducted searches at over 50 places linked to Tamil Nadu Electricity Minister V Senthil Balaji in Chennai, Karur and Coimbatore on Friday.

Dravida Munnetra Kazhagam organisation secretary and former Member of Parliament RS Bharathi said the searches were a result of the Bharatiya Janata Party being "unable" to digest the DMK government's popularity in Tamil Nadu, and accused the saffron party of using Central agencies to "avenge" opposition parties. According to sources, the searches may continue on Saturday and Sunday.



The I-T operation has come just days after the minister, who also holds charge of prohibition and excise departments, faced criticism over death of 23 people in a hooch tragedy and BJP state unit president K Annamalai demanded his removal as minister following a Supreme Court ruling in an alleged cash-for-job scam.

Speaking to reporters in Chennai, the minister denied reports that he was being raided by authorities and said searches were being conducted at the properties of his brother Ashok, Kumar, his friends, relatives, and acquaintances.

During the search at one of Ashok's property, some party cadres broke the windshield and rear-view mirror of an I-T official's car. Karur SP E Sundaravathanam said police were not informed about the income tax searches and the I-T officials also didn't bring any CRPF personnel for protection.

On reports of a massive residential property coming up in Karur, Balaji said it was in the name of his brother's wife on a land "gifted" by her mother. No land has been purchased in my name or that of my family members since 2006, Senthil Balaji added.

Union govt cuts Kerala's borrowing limit by ₹7,500 cr

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@T'Puram

KERALA found itself in dire straits on Friday after the Union government drastically cut the state's net borrowing ceiling (NBC) on market borrowings for 2023-24. The Union finance ministry conveyed that the state's NBC would be ₹15,390 crore for the first nine months, about ₹7,500 crore less than the corresponding period last fiscal.

The Centre has not specified the reason for the "harsh cut", said a source in the state finance minister's office. The sanction for the first nine months in the previous fiscal was ₹22,900 crore. Another ₹997 crore was sanctioned for the last three months. The centre had earlier allowed the state to borrow ₹2,000 crore on an adhoc basis. Now it will be adjusted from the ₹15,390 crore. "Our expectation this year was anywhere near ₹24,000 crore. The sanction for the first nine months indicates that we will face a shortage of about ₹7,500 crore compared to last year. The sanction for the last three months would be an amount below one fourth of the amount sanctioned for the first nine months," said the source.

Normally, a calculation table would be sent, with the consent letter for market borrowings from the Centre. It will list the deductions made from the original NBC and the reasons, mostly the funds parked in the treasuries and off-budget borrowings by public sector companies. The Department of Expenditure under the Union finance ministry determines the NBC of states for each financial year on the basis of projected Gross State Domestic Product (GSDP) and recommendation of the Finance Commision (FC).

The Fifteenth FC has fixed the NBC for states in 2023-24 at 3 percent of the projected GSDP. Thus Kerala's projected NBC this year is ₹32,442 crore. The state is also eligible for an additional borrowing ceiling of 0.50% of the GSDP for meeting certain performance criteria in the power sector.

But the actual NBC for the state would be less than the projected NBC due to the revised guidelines on Off-Budget Borrowings (OBBs) that came into effect last year.

Accordingly, borrowings by special purpose vehicles like Kerala Infrastructure Investment Fund Board (KIIFB) and Kerala Social Security Pension Limited (KSSPL) will be adjusted in the NBC.

Last year, the Centre decided to adjust over ₹3,000 crore from the projected NBC for four years. This was to adjust the OBBs availed of by the KIIFB and the KSSPL till then.

STUDENTS DISCUSS KEY ISSUES FOR G20

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

THINK20 (T20) which serves as an idea bank for the G20 by bringing together think tanks and high-level experts to discuss policy issues relevant to the G20 hosted an event in Bengaluru on Friday to address issues related to gender, startups, digital technology, economy, sustainable tourism, blended finance, agriculture and data for development. Students from Dr BR Ambedkar School of Economics University in collaboration with Manohar Parrikar Institute for Defence Studies and Analyses (MP-IDSA) made presentations on the seven themes of T20 this year and made observations with regard to what G20 could do to address challenges.

Ambassador Sujan R Chinoy, the T20 Chair of India's Presidency said,"Given the backdrop of rising global tensions, looming recessions, unchecked digital reliance and fractured institutions, India had a critical role to play." He also highlighted that there is a need for the youth to receive a good education that will drive them toward progress and development. Dr NR Bhanumurthy, the Vice-Chancellor of BASEU and the Chair of the T20, Task Force 1 said, "India stands as a bright spot and is more than capable to help evolve a framework for macro-fiscal-monetary coordination."

Shift from women development to women-led development, advise leaders

BENGALURU: Dr Sandhya Purecha, chair of the G20 group on gender equity, W20, said on Friday that skill development programmes need to be redesigned so that they are more inclusive and result-oriented. She was speaking at the Women in Higher Education for Enabling Leadership (WHEEL), a women vice-chancellors and leaders' conclave organised jointly by the Manipal Academy of Higher Education (MAHE) and W20. She said that in order to holistically tackle gender inequality, opinions and voices of women from different socio-economic, cultural and minority backgrounds must be taken into account. The conclave is a two-day event, wherein 50 women vice-chancellors and leaders from across sectors and parts of India came together to discuss issues in women development. In particular, they focused on a shift from women's development to women-led development. "There is a necessity to reduce the global gender gap in leadership, as data reveals that women are significantly under-represented at all decision-making levels. Skill development programmes need to be redesigned to be more inclusive and result-oriented," she said. Recommendations were given is five areas, namely higher education, labour force participation, skill development, care work and leadership. ENS

SENGOL ROW

'Gave it to Mountbatten, but no docus to prove it'

VAITHEESWARAN B @Chennai

SRILA Sri 24th Gurumaha Sannidhanam, head seer of Thiruvaduthurai mutt, on Friday said the mutt doesn't have photographic proof or documents to support the claim sceptre or sengol was used to mark the transfer of power from the British to India in 1947. He, however, said the sceptre was presented to Mountbtbatten and taken back from him, before it was finally presented to first PM-elect Nehru.

"During 20th Gurumaha Sannidhanam Ambalavana Desikan's period, a five-foot-tall sceptre was made in Chennai (Madras). Kumarasami Thambiran, Manikkam Ooduvar and TN Rajarathinam flew to Delhi (with that). Thambiran Swamigal presented and took back the sceptre from Mountbatten. After which, they took it as a procession and presented it to Nehru," the seer told reporters in Chennai on Friday.

Reiterating the Union Government's allegation that some people were spreading false information on the matter, the seer said the allegations were paining the mutt. If it's true that we got Independence, then it is true that we gave the sceptre (sengol) to Jawaharlal Nehru during Independence, the seer said.

The mutt handed over a 46-page booklet to reporters on Friday as evidence. Titled 'Thurasai Sceptre in India Independence', the booklet said the sengol was presented to the first Prime Minister-elect on August 14, 11.45 pm. The book contains pictures of mutt's association with prominent leaders like Indira Gandhi, and Morarji Desai. Interestingly, pictures of Lord Mountbatten and Rajaji were missing in the book.

The aadheenam said the mutt doesn't have any record/photos to show it marked the transfer of power ceremony, as claimed by the Union government. He said they're not sure of the time or place of the ritual. "In those days, we didn't have photos," he said.

CHENNAI: To condemn the inauguration of the new Parliament building on the birth anniversary of Veer Savarkar, the VCK has urged cadre to hoist black flags in their houses and wear black shirts on the inauguration day. VCK president Thol Thirumavalavan, in a press statement, strongly criticised the Union government for scheduling the inauguration on Savarkar's birth anniversary. It is a disgrace to the nation. Thirumavalavan also called upon the general public and other democratic forces to unite and express condemnation for the event.

HDK: Cong is shedding crocodile tears

ENS @Bengaluru

FORMER CM HD Kumaraswamy attacked Congress for allegedly politicising the inauguration of the new Parliament building and defended the party's stand after former prime minister HD Deve Gowda decided to attend the event amid opposition boycott.

Kumaraswamy explained that the decision was unanimously taken in the national executive meeting. "PM Narendra Modi has invited the former PM and there is nothing wrong in attending it," he said, clarifying that JDS will be equidistant from both BJP and Congress.

He accused the Congress of "shedding crocodile tears" by dragging President Droupadi Murmu's name into it and accusing the central government of insulting the tribals. "If Congress was so concerned about tribals, why did it nominate Yashwant Sinha as the opposition presidential candidate? Sonia Gandhi laid the foundation stone for the legislative building in Chhattisgarh. Congress think of the President," he said. He also alleged that the Congress has won 45-50 seats, including Ramanagara and Magadi constituencies, by inducing voters and dared CM Siddaramaiah to order a probe. "Hours before polling, Congress gave coupons to voters. The coupons had QR codes, using which the voters could shop in designated stores and buy items worth ₹3,000. This is a huge election scam," he added, demanding that the Election Commission of India investigate.

Kumaraswamy showed the coupons allegedly distributed by Congress during the press conference and alleged that around 60,000 coupons were distributed in about 42 constituencies. He said state party chief CM Ibrahim and youth wing chief Nikhil Kumaraswamy's resignations have not been accepted.

'DIA should vouch for privacy, foster innovation'

PURAN CHOUDHARY
@Bengaluru

THE Information Technology Act, 2000, is all set to get a makeover in the first week of June as Digital India Act (DIA), 2023. The new legislation aims to regulate digital services such as social media, OTT platforms, Artificial Intelligence (AI), data security, user privacy and cybercrime, among other technology-related matters.

While the Act is crucial for India, there should be a balance between vouching for privacy and fostering innovation, according to experts.

"The Act should ensure accountability and transparency in data usage by companies. It's encouraging that the Act is addressing emerging technologies like AI and blockchain, but we need clear regulations to ensure ethical use," Sonam Srivastava, Founder & CEO, Wright Research, said.

Regulation of AI and tools such as ChatGPT and Google Bard have increasingly raised concerns of replacing human jobs. In fact, Sam Altman, CEO, Open AI and creator of ChatGPT, stressed the need to regulate AI and formation of a global governing body. In India, the DIA comes at a time when it is leading in technological innovation and a much-needed change since the IT Act (23 years).

Jitender Ahlawat, founder, Haresh Jani & Associates (HJA) & Associates LLP, said, "The DIA will change the way we look at cybercrime and bring some change in IPCs related to such crimes." He said this Act will be important for intermediaries and should have the basic objective of creating "safe secure and accountable" internet space for its users.

Prateek Shukla, co-founder and CEO of Masai School, said, "The Act should prioritise online safety and trust while allowing unrestricted internet access for its users. DIA should aid internet users first, looking at issues such as social manipulation, privacy breaches, and identity theft."

An unending battle for Dalits in this TN village

KRITHIKA SRINIVASAN
@Villupuram

IT seems an endless battle for SC people of Melpathi village in Villupuram to enter the Draupati amman temple, as caste Hindus are firm in not allowing the former inside.

About 400 women along with children staged a sit-in protest inside the temple on Friday, locking the front door, shouting slogans against HR&CE department, district administration and police for 'supporting the SC members. It may be noted that five representatives of caste Hindus had agreed for the temple entry before District Collector C Palani, SP (in-charge) N Mohan Raj and RDO S Ravichandran a couple of days ago.

Sources said the representatives say something at meetings with officials but threaten SC members later. Multiple peace talks were facilitated by the district administration, but have gone in vain. An FIR filed against caste Hindus has also not brought about any change even after 40 days.

About 400 women along with children staged an agitation inside the temple on Friday protesting against the administration and police | EXPRESS

"We don't care about entering the temple after all the humiliation we have undergone in the past 45 days. There is no God beyond caste. However, our main demand is that action should be taken based on the FIR filed against those who abused and assaulted us before hundreds of people," said S Kandhan, father of Kathiravan (21) who was assaulted.

Another 45 year-old SC member said, "On Wednesday they agreed at the meeting to let us into the temple. The same night, they came to our colony and threatened us with dire consequences."

S Hari Krishnan (22), a caste Hindu, said, "It is our tradition not to let Dalits inside. Even we enter only after fasting for days and practising rituals. How can we accept them entering the temple and taking the rights for one day during festival?"

As regards the assault, Krishnan said, "The man who claims to be the victim was misbehaving with women at the festival that day. That is why we got agitated and sent him away. This is being twisted." However, Krishnan could not provide any evidence for the alleged offence by Kathiravan.

Ravichandran told The New Indian Express, "The matter was settled amicably on Friday afternoon. We are attempting to resolve the issue without causing any future tension."

HITS AND MISSES AS MODI GOVERNMENT COMPLETES NINE YEARS IN OFFICE

With Prime Minister Narendra Modi completing nine years in office, the ruling BJP sought to make a spectacle out of it while the Opposition tried to land some solid punches on the party. The performance of the government has been mixed, depending on which way you look at it. The economy had its troughs and crests, though it is now the world's fifth largest economy, overtaking that of the United Kingdom. This is despite the havoc wrought on the economy by the sudden demonetisation of high value banknotes in 2016. The stock market indices—Nifty and Sensex—surged 150% and market capitalisation grew three-fold during the last nine years despite the Covid-induced slowdown. Digitisation, ramping up of rail, road and telecom infrastructure, and building an enabling ecosystem for startups led to the creation of over a hundred unicorns. The government also scored on the welfare front. Its mammoth operation of manufacturing and distributing free vaccines during Covid-19, distribution of free ration to over 80 crore poor people, free gas connections under the Ujjwala scheme, tap water connection to crores of households, and the direct cash transfer into farmers' accounts have become vote catchers. On the ideological front, too, the government sought to consolidate its base with the construction of a Ram temple in Ayodhya, the Kashi-Vishwanath Corridor and the Statue of Unity. Ticking the Hindutva checkbox by building a number of other religious circuits are right up there on the agenda.

As the government enters the last year of its current term, there are also concerns regarding the situation on the border with China. Unemployment is another pain point. Trouble is also brewing in the Northeast, where the Nagas are getting restive due to the delay in signing of a final agreement and, now, violence has erupted in Manipur, with the minority tribals seeking separate administration for the hill areas. Opposition-ruled states have been raising their voice against the Centre for its interference in administration through governors. Communication lines between the government and the Opposition have completely broken and as a result, Parliament's productivity has hit a record low. Though the Modi government has scored many hits, a more inclusive approach will go a long way in bringing harmony and setting the country on a faster growth trajectory.

ANGEL TAX REVAMP IS A MIXED BAG FOR ECONOMY

The Ministry of Finance's provisions regarding angel tax for startups has evoked both delight and displeasure among investors. If the latest notification exempted 21 countries including the US, the UK, Australia and France from forking out angel tax on investments made in Indian unlisted startups, it excludes major investor-friendly countries like Mauritius, Singapore, the Cayman Islands, and the Netherlands. The DPIIT-recognised startups are, however, exempted from paying any angel tax. Introduced in 2012, the sole purpose of the angel tax was to prevent money laundering, so excluding tax havens like Mauritius seems appropriate both in spirit and substance. But some argue that investors, even those from, say, the US or the UK, have complex organisational structures involving a maze of entities, based in tax havens and hence their exclusion may impact overall foreign investments into the country.

Investors have begun sensing that the emboldened government may sooner or later bring in even Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) under the purview of angel tax to prevent the circulation of unaccounted money. Incidentally, the excluded tax havens are among India's top 10 jurisdictions that bring in FDI, which plunged by 16.3% to $71 billion in FY23. Official data also shows that FDI from Mauritius and Singapore alone accounted for over $18 billion last fiscal, so the government must tread carefully without upsetting the larger investor community.

As for startups, the government's directive is part of the broader objective of sanctifying the sources of funding and to attract foreign investment from countries with robust regulatory frameworks. It comes close on the heels of the Central Board of Direct Taxes (CBDT) notification exempting a host of investment classes including sovereign wealth funds, pension funds, banks, and insurers from angel tax, or a 30.9% tax that unlisted startups must pay on net investments over the fair market value of their shares. While this augurs well for spendthrift startups that focus more on raising even unaccounted funds than on profit making, the changes in tax provisions shouldn't disrupt the overall investment ecosystem in the country. That said, Indian startups too should concentrate more on their promises vs delivery. Soonicorns, or the soon-to-be-unicorns, should channel energies on effectively monetizing products or services given the ongoing funding winter, and ensure that India's unicorn club continues to flourish.

QUICK TAKE

QUIET IN THE HILLS

The civil aviation ministry launches a scheme in remote areas with helicopters providing last-mile connectivity. A growing appetite for adventure and religious tourism in remote places backs the idea. Nearly 50 helicopter routes are currently operational in hilly and northeastern states. However, new research that chopper noise harms people, animals and structures in the hills may prove a dampener. Noise pollution is undoubtedly a price to pay for this luxury. The roaring noises throughout the day may put off tourists seeking tranquillity. The government should at least lay down noise level limits for day and evening operations.

Bangladesh's Indo-Pacific Outlook attempts to allay concerns about any tilt or perception of a tilt towards China

BANGLADESH'S INDO-PACIFIC BALANCING ACT

PINAK RANJAN CHAKRAVARTY

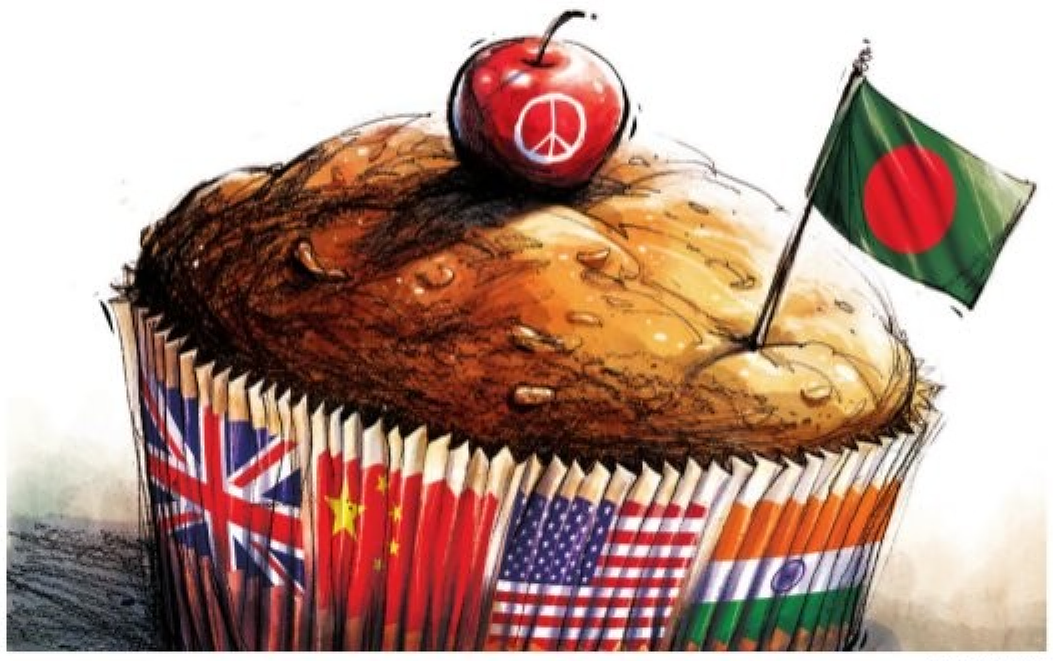
Former Secretary in MEA, and served as India's Deputy High Commissioner and High Commissioner to Bangladesh. Visiting Fellow at ORF, Delhi

Bangladesh released its Indo-Pacific Outlook [IPO] in late April, ending speculation about its posture vis-à-vis the Indo-Pacific. Bangladesh's IPO is a significant yet nuanced geopolitical move. India has welcomed this. India's External Affairs Minister Dr S Jaishankar, attending the recent Indian Ocean Conference in Dhaka, said, "I am truly glad that Bangladesh has joined the company of those (countries) who have done so." India had outlined its Indo-Pacific (IP) strategy in 2018 in the speech delivered by PM Modi at the Shangri La Dialogue in Singapore.

China's influence in Bangladesh has grown exponentially across defence, trade and investment sectors. China tried to seduce Bangladesh into a Hambantota model of deep sea port construction in Chittagong but Bangladesh backed out. This was despite China supplying it with two refurbished Ming-class Type 035B diesel electric submarines and building a submarine maintenance facility in Chittagong. Huge loans from China for various projects have led to growing concerns about Bangladesh going the Sri Lankan way—getting sucked into a debt trap and aligning with China's strategic objectives that include anti-India ones.

Bangladesh has been under some pressure from the USA, UK and Japan to come out of the closet regarding its IP posture. The USA has reportedly asked Bangladesh to join the QUAD. On January 10 this year, in an unprecedented move, newly appointed Chinese foreign minister Qin Gang visited Dhaka in his first-ever foreign trip, which broke a 32-year record wherein a Chinese FM's first foreign trip has always been to Africa. Clearly, China was pressing Bangladesh not to join the QUAD. China's ambassador in Dhaka has accused the USA of ramping up pressure on Bangladesh to join the QUAD. There has been a spate of statements from the USA, UK and the EU about free and fair elections in 2024, as if to give notice that if unfair means are adopted, consequences would follow. The US imposed sanctions on senior officials of Bangladesh's Rapid Action Battalion [RAB] for human rights violations and questioned Bangladesh's utilisation of bilateral aid. Bangladesh foreign minister Dr A K Abdul Momen has rejected any suggestion that his country has acted under external pressure. He said, "We are not following anyone. Our IPO is independent."

There are several interesting features in the 15-point IPO, which reflects the vision of Sheikh Mujibur Rahman, Bangladesh Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina's father and the country's first president and PM who firmly believed in non-alignment and neutrality. He was determined to stay away from big power rivalry and emphasised the principles of peaceful coexistence and of "friendship towards all, malice towards none".



SOUMYADIP SINHA

The timing of the IPO's announcement was on the eve of PM Hasina's visits to Japan, the USA and UK, signalling clearly that Bangladesh wanted to avoid any more pressure. The choice of calling its IP policy "Outlook"—the same word used by the ASEAN—projects a softer and aspirational view and avoids any linkage to security objectives. There are several other similarities with the ASEAN document, like the emphasis on expanding and engaging in constructive regional and international cooperation, which is expected to contribute to regional as well as Bangladesh's sustainable development and prosperity.

Bangladesh's IPO includes boilerplate references to the UN Charter and international treaties. The UNCLOS is specifically mentioned. Apart from a "free and open" IP region, Bangladesh has added "peaceful, secure and inclusive". It emphasises building a "culture of peace" and includes "women, peace, and security" and supports a rules-based multilateral system. Predictably, there is no mention of the QUAD.

Bangladesh has an abiding interest in the Bay of Bengal and the Indian Ocean, having accomplished peaceful settlements of maritime disputes with India and Myanmar. Currently, Bangladesh is chairing the Indian Ocean Rim Association (IORA) and has announced its blue economy plan. It cannot ignore that its largest export markets are in the USA, EU and India. It has developed extensive economic and military ties with all major powers, including the US, UK, Russia, China, Japan and India. The EU, India, Japan, South Korea and the US are also major investors in Bangladesh. Some Western observers have viewed Bangladesh's posturing vis-à-vis the IP as a step closer to current American and Indian policies on the IP. They have interpreted the support for freedom of navigation and maritime safety as a counter to China's claiming sovereignty over the South China Sea.

In a new economic partnership agreement, Japanese PM Fumio Kishida has called for a "new plan" for the region and collaborations with Bangladesh. Japan has invested in the Matarbari deep sea port in Bangladesh which will have an industrial zone in the hinterland. PM Kishida said the industrial value chain from Matarbari in the Bay of Bengal and the hinterland of landlocked northeastern states in India which neighbours China, Myanmar and Bangladesh, will be immensely benefited from "the growth of the entire region". The incentive for economic integration via supply chains between Bangladesh and India's northeastern states, to access a bigger market, is a strong incentive. Bangladesh's strategic location can serve as a gateway to both South and Southeast Asia.

The IPO attempts to allay concerns about any Bangladeshi tilt or perception of a tilt towards China. Bangladesh needed western support for its loan from the IMF to buttress its falling foreign exchange reserves. Balancing and hedging have become the default policy options for countries seeking new partners in the IP. Even as Bangladesh embraces the IP, it is signalling to China that it seeks to avoid rivalries and has no security goals. ASEAN, whose members have deep economic ties with China, had opted for similar language in its Outlook on the Indo-Pacific.

Bangladesh clearly believes its interests aren't compromised by the IPO. As it navigates the strategic competition in the Indo-Pacific, its IPO appears to be a hedging strategy seeking to balance western powers and China. Whether Bangladesh can continue to navigate big power contestation successfully is a moot question. Black Swan events like a conflict over Taiwan or an India-China conflict would require a rethink in Bangladesh's current strategy.

SENGOL: EPICENTRE OF AN EPIC EVENT

DR S VAIDHYASUBRAMANIAM

Vice-Chancellor & Tata Sons Chair Professor of Management, SASTRA deemed university

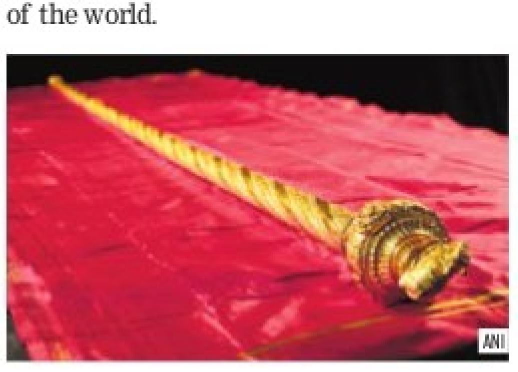
Pandit Nehru's Tryst with Destiny midnight speech was preceded by his historic Tryst with Divinity. In a first of its kind event, whose second coming is about to happen in the central hall of Bharat's temple of democracy on May 28, 2023, the Sengol (sacred sceptre) was presented to Nehru symbolising the transfer of power to independent India.

The new Parliament building inauguration rewinds our minds to August 14/15, 1947, with the image and sound of Indian Independence flashing and ringing to generate a nationalist mood to cherish the birth of independent India. As the nation cruised through its Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav and has entered its Amrit Kaal, the installation of Sengol in the central hall of Parliament is a moment of honour for all Indians and of pride in particular for the people of Tamil Nadu. Here is why.

As the preparations for India's Independence were being made, Nehru turned to scholar-statesman C Rajagopalachariar (fondly called Rajaji) for advice regarding the transfer of a power instrument. Using his sharp intellect and penchant for details, it was Rajaji who proposed the idea of handing over the Sengol, specially made by the Thiruvavaduthurai Adheenam (a renowned Saiva Mutt in Tamil Nadu), to be presented to Nehru to symbolise the transfer of power proceedings. This historical milestone, thanks to a trigger pulse from Prime Minister Modi, kick-started the 'Sengol to Parliament' action plan. The rest is going to be history on May 28, as the sacred Sengol makes its parliamentary pravesha.

The euphoria is understandable as this iconic civilisational asset of India is now the talking point for millions, not only in India but also around the world. India's Sengol may very well be the world's lighthouse that legitimises in its physical presence in Parliament the rule of law and dharma, the two eyes of democratic governance. More about the Sengol.

Tamil Nadu's contribution to India's civilisational capital has been in many forms. Its Sangam literature, culture, arts, etc., have all been fostered and encouraged by the royal kingdoms of Chera, Chola and Pandya besides other social institutions and individuals. The institutions and identities that the royal Tamil kings created during their rules are still speaking symbols of eternal values. Not only the kings but also their Rajagurus, poets, scholars, musicians, etc., were all perennial fountainheads of Tamil knowledge with global reach. Thirukkural, the globally revered work of saint-poet Thiruvalluvar, is a bundle of eternal values encompassing all forms of individuals and institutions. A civilisational continuum like India is never bereft of iconic traditional practices and customs that are still not only followed in India but also adopted by various parts of the world. One such treasured asset is the Sengol that has global acceptance and is still relevant and revered in many parts of the world.



ANI

At a time when we looked with awe as King Charles held the sceptre during his recent coronation, Modi's installation of the Sengol in Parliament is a timely signal to look inwards to cerebrate our own

Ancient civilisations like Egypt, Mesopotamia, the Greco-Roman world besides various religious faiths always had a place of prominence for the Sengol. The Indian civilisation is no exception. Once a Vishwaguru, it is marching towards that position again. It demonstrated to the world that it was the Sengol and not the Spear or Sword that bound the king and kingdom to his and its people.

The Thirukkural's chapter 'Sengonmai' in the second couplet says, "Vaanokki vaazhum ulagellaam, mannavan konnokki vaazhum kudi." The meaning of this kural is, "As the world looks at the sky for rain, the people look at the ruler and his Sengol." It is the profundity of the Sengol that made it an integral part of the Tamil land, where it is not only a king's source of law and justice but also an inspiration for the common man's expectation from different authorities in power. This establishes a just and fair process of governance from top to bottom.

As a symbol of universal value, the Sengol has had a special place since time immemorial. The inner meaning of the word makes it special always. Sengol is the concatenation of "semmai + kol" that makes it an iconic representation of the rule of law and governance and not an ornamental addition to the royal treasury. The importance that Sengol attached to the virtues and values of the Tamil kings and their kingdoms has always been a source of pride that we need to celebrate. At a time when we looked with awe as King Charles held the sceptre during his recent coronation, Modi's installation of the Sengol in Parliament is a timely signal to look inwards to cerebrate our own. While powers change, it's the Sengol that remains unchanged and is handed over to the new king and is even in practice today in other events of importance too.

It is this historical significance of Sengol that Prime Minister Modi is installing in the new building of Parliament, not just by a one-act play but by putting the Sengol in its proper permanent location, addressing the aspirations of many.

On the night of August 14, 1947, Thirugnanasammandar's verse in Kolaru Padhigam "Arasalum aanai namadhe" was chanted when the Sengol was handed over as a symbol of power exchange. It sends pleasant chills down our bodies now to recall the event not by rewinding but by reenacting history and also creating a renewed sense of Tamil pride. At a time when Ponniyin Selvan is making waves as a movie connecting masses with Tamil pride, this live enactment of a bundle of historical facts truly touches the hearts and triggers the minds of not only Tamilians but also all those who believe in the rule of justice and law. There are always uncertainties in estimating the future. The present has to be lived. It is the past that can never be left vulnerable to questions of uncertainty.

Modi's re-enactment of the event from August 14, 1947, studded with facts of certainty, is undoubtedly a historicity multiplier of sorts, making Sengol the epicentre of an epic event. In short: Sengol is the Epicentre of an Epic event.

CUET woes

Apropos of Far-off centres stress out CUET aspirants (May 26). Unlike last year when CUET was conducted with technical glitches, it has been held successfully this time. I wish more precautionary measures are taken by increasing the number of centres to end aspirants' pain of travelling long distances.

Apropos of Karnataka polls will not derail BJP's agenda of nation building (May 26). The article is a proper analysis of the vote share, positives and negatives for the BJP in the Karnataka Assembly election. The campaign lacked cohesion of cadres and a focused agenda. A negative result is a good learning exercise for the BJP and will help fine-tune its strategy for the 2024 election.

Kudos to Prof Jagadeesh Pillai on his fifth entry into the Guinness book by releasing the longest song composed and recorded by him based on 'Sri Ramcharitmanas'. It is amazing that a person who hails from a non-Hindi-speaking state has beautifully rendered such a long song in the Awadhi language.

Apropos of On a Narcotic High, Kerala must save itself (May 26). That a school teacher was a drug addict and killed a doctor in the presence of police officials, and the revelation by the Kochi Police Commissioner that an SP's two sons are addicts are startling facts. To save a generation, the government should act swiftly, contain this menace and initiate more awareness programmes.

With regards to the inauguration of the new Parliament building, the PM does not seem to want to share the stage with the President. There is no other explanation as to why the President has not been asked to inaugurate it. Not everything in India needs to be about the PM or the BJP.

PM-led India a bright spot, says BJP

Says a period of development as the NDA government completes nine years in office

THE BJP-led National Democratic Alliance (NDA) government is completing nine years in power on May 26, an occasion for the BJP to showcase its achievements under the leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi.

A series of presentations were made on Friday dwelling on the scale and speed of development works. Party chief JP Nadda described the nine years as a period of dedication seva (service), sushasan (good governance) and garib-kalyan (welfare of the poor).

"India under the dynamic leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi is not only developing rapidly on all fronts, but also gaining global acceptance and grandeur. The country is working with the spirit of 'sab ka vikas, sab ka saath, sab ka prayas' (all-round development with unity of purpose)," said Nadda at a media interaction. "India is now being acknowledged as a bright spot for development," he said.

On the sidelines of the formal interaction, Nadda told this newspaper that the upcoming 2024 Lok Sabha elections will be fought on the issues of development.

"Opposition's efforts to forge unity against Prime Minister Modi will be nothing but a futile exercise of those who indulge in the politics of survival instead of 'politics of seva, sushasan and garib kalyan'."

Outlining the government's 9 years of performance, Nadda said India is no more seen as a corrupt nation. It is viewed as a country moving fast on the economic path after Modi became 'Pradhan Sevak' of the country. "It is now a well-accepted fact that India under PM Modi has a government that can take hard decisions. The government is working for holistic and inclusive growth," Nadda said.

While having a free interaction with the media, many senior BJP leaders, including Union Home Minister Amit Shah, Railway Minister Ashwini Vaishnaw, Union minister Smriti Irani, Anurag Thakur and others shared the developmental nuances of the Modi government.

"India ensured a safe return of over 2.97 crore people from across the world during the Covid-19 pandemic and the Indian economy has become the world's 5th largest economy in 2022 with more than 100 unicorns," said Smriti Irani.

The party said between 2015 and 2022, the government saved more than ₹2.73 lakh crore due to the distribution of benefits through direct bank transfer. The Government-e-Marketplace (GeM) portal is successfully eliminating corruption and streamlining public procurement in the country, the party said.

Listing the schemes launched by the Modi government, it said their implementation has empowered every Indian. The results of such "irreversible empowerment" can be seen in programmes like MUDRA Yojana and Stand-Up India, which are creating a large pool of young entrepreneurs from marginalised groups.

"More than half of the 40 crore loans under Mudra have been given to SC, ST, OBC entrepreneurs. This has ushered in empowerment of not just individuals, and has offered a means to empowering traditionally neglected communities," it said.

India, Nepal to ink slew of pacts during Prachanda's visit next week

YESHI SELI @New Delhi

A 25-year agreement on power purchase, launching of an inter-country digital payment (like the UPI in India) and trilateral trade between India, Nepal and Bangladesh are some of the possible things that would be announced during the upcoming state visit of Nepal Prime Minister Pushpa Kamal Dahal (Prachanda) to India next week (May 31-June 3).

Prachanda will be accompanied by a large delegation, including officials from ministries of energy, trade and infrastructure. Prachanda is expected to visit Mumbai too, but will arrive in Delhi first. He is expected to meet Prime Minister Narendra Modi, external affairs minister S Jaishankar and National Security Advisor Ajit Doval, among others. He will also be having interactions with the business community, say sources.

A joint communique will be issued during the end of the visit. The draft prepared for the visit by the Nepalese government includes increasing two-way air traffic, inter-country digital payment with India for Nepali companies, a trilateral electricity trade with Bangladesh, power purchase agreement between India and Nepal for 25 years, Lower Arun and Phukot Karnali hydropower development project and Amlekhgunj Lothar and Siliguri-Jhapa petroleum pipeline construction agreement.

"More than half a dozen agreements and memoranda of understanding are likely to be signed and announced. The agreements will likely include subscribing to a digital payment mode that would ease cross-border payments using e-wallet and building of bridges in Chandani-Dodhara and the Jhulaghat areas across the Mahakali River in Kanchanpur and Darchula districts respectively," say sources.

Besides, Nepal is likely to put in a request to extend India-funded petroleum pipeline inside Nepali territory. There could be an agreement on a new petroleum pipeline to be constructed from Siliguri to Jhapa and storage facilities and extension of present Motihari-Amlekhgunj petroleum pipeline to Lothar, Chitwan.

Teachers' job scam: Setback to TMC's Abhishek in apex court

SHRUTI KAKKAR @New Delhi

TMC general secretary Abhishek Banerjee, who is being probed by CBI and ED in the teachers' recruitment scam in West Bengal, suffered a setback on Friday as the Supreme Court refused to stay the Calcutta High Court order allowing the agencies to interrogate him.

A vacation bench of Justices JK Maheshwari and PS Narasimha opined the HC order was 'balanced and fair' and stayed the portion that imposed a ₹25 lakh fine on the TMC leader which the bench found to be "excessive". The court was also of the view that its earlier orderof directing the chief justice of the HC to list the plea before a bench other than Justice Gangopadhyay was to allay his apprehensions.

"Every point that we raised has been considered. This order is a balanced and fair order. The imposition of fine was not warranted. It is not that the HC cannot impose any cost."

Gaganyaan: ISRO, Navy announce joint recovery training plan for crew

A crew recovery module used in trials

TAKING India's space mission a step further, the Navy and Indian Space Research Organisation (ISRO) released the Recovery Training Plan for the Gaganyaan mission at the Water Survival Training Facility at INS Garuda, in Kochi.

The document outlines the training plan for recovery of the Crew Module of the mission, the Indian Navy said on Friday. It defines overall requirements with regard to training of various teams participating in recovery operations include divers, MARCOs, medical specialists, communicators, technicians and Naval aviators, it said.

Two unmanned missions and one manned space flight are scheduled to be conducted under the ambitious Gaganyaan programme. The manned space flight mission is scheduled to be launched in the fourth quarter of 2024.

The training document was jointly released by Vice Admiral Atul Anand, Director General of Naval Operations; Dr Unnikrishnan Nair, director, Vikram Sarabhai Space Centre; and Dr Umamaheshwaran R, director, Human Space Flight Centre, ISRO.

The recovery training is planned in incremental phases starting from unmanned recovery to manned recovery training in harbour and open sea conditions. The recovery operations are being led by the Indian Navy in coordination with other government agencies.

The Crew Module Recovery Model was also formally handed over to the Navy at its state of the art Water Survival Training Facility at INS Garuda, Kochi. The mass and shape simulated mockup will be used for familiarisation and training of Gaganyaan recovery teams.

The Indian Navy will also assist ISRO by undertaking a series of trials to fine tune the Standard Operating Procedures for training the crew and recovery teams of Gaganyaan.

The Gaganyaan programme envisages undertaking the demonstration of human spaceflight to Low Earth Orbit (LEO) in the short-term and will lay the foundation for a sustained Indian human space exploration programme in the long run. The objective of Gaganyaan programme is to demonstrate indigenous capability to undertake human space flight mission to LEO.

The uncrewed 'G1' mission is targeted to be launched in the last quarter of 2023 followed by the second uncrewed 'G2' mission in the second quarter of 2024, before the final human space flight 'H1' mission in the fourth quarter of 2024. The astronauts designated for flight mission are currently undergoing their mission specific training at Bengaluru.

Minister: No laxity on quality if India wants to be pharmacy of world

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@New Delhi

UNION Health Minister Mansukh Mandaviya on Friday said that if India wants to continue being the "pharmacy of the world" then there can be no laxity with the quality of pharmaceutical products.

His comments came after the Centre made lab tests mandatory for cough syrups before they are exported globally. The government took the step after India-made cough syrups were linked to the deaths of children in The Gambia and Uzbekistan. "If we are to continue being 'Pharmacy of the World', there can be no laxity with the quality of our pharmaceutical products, our products should also be affordable and competitive in the global market."

He said, "India's pharmaceutical industry is robust, resilient, and responsive. It is due to this that we could not only meet our down demand during the pandemic but also be in a position to supply medicines to 150 countries."

Mandaviya was speaking at the Eighth International Conference on Pharma and Medical Device Sector, organised by the Department of Pharmaceuticals in association with the Federation of Indian Chambers of Commerce and Industry (FICCI).

"India played a phenomenal role in meeting the requirements of not just its domestic but needs of many others under unprecedented circumstances," he added.

"India's pharmaceutical sector, called the 'Pharmacy of the World' will contribute more in the coming years for the domestic needs and to cater to global demand too," he added.

Declared as a sunrise sector, the minister emphasized that this is an emerging manufacturing hub that has seen phenomenal progress with the implementation of production-linked incentive schemes and investments for medical drug parks. "Our advantage over other nations is price competitiveness and quality," he said.

He launched the 'Assistance for Medical Devices Clusters for Common Facilities' scheme at the occasion, which aims to establish and strengthen common infrastructure facilities in the medical devices clusters.

GOLDEN TRADITION

SENGOL TRADITION DEMYSTIFIED, THE CONTROVERSY UNRAVELLED

The revelation made by the Union government regarding the utilisation of a Sengol (sceptre) from Tamil Nadu during the inauguration of the new Parliament building gives rise to numerous inquiries concerning the historical background, importance, and political implications associated with the employment of this artifact.

WHAT IS SENGOL?

The Sengol, an adorned golden sceptre crowned with a nandi (bull), was bestowed upon Jawaharlal Nehru, the first Prime Minister, by Viceroy Lord Mountbatten on August 14, 1947. A controversy has erupted on whether this act symbolised the momentous transfer of power from the British to India. The Sengol carries immense importance as a dharma danda, embodying the principles of virtual and ethical governance elucidated in ancient Tamil scriptures. As a symbol of authority and sovereignty, it acknowledges Nehru's pivotal role as first Prime Minister.

CONTROVERSY

Aadheenam mutts are Shaivite (or Saivaite) religious institutions, which administers Shaivite temples (Lord Siva Temples) in Tamil Nadu. There are around 20 such mutts in the southern state. The incident of the "Thiruvaduthurai Aadheenam enabling Transfer Of Power through a Golden Sceptre (Sengol)" has sparked debate following the Union government's announcement that a similar ritual would be performed during the inauguration of the New Parliament building on May 28. Home Minister Amit Shah stated that the Aadheenam mutt seers would present Prime Minister Narendra Modi with the same Sengol, which would later be installed at the New Parliament building. This decision has triggered a debate among politicians and historians, with allegations that the government has distorted the historical significance of the Sengol, a symbol of India's Independence.

HISTORY

According to the mutt's address to Nehru, the 20th Gurumaha Sannithanam Sri La Sri Ambalavana Desika Swamigal stated that the "Sengol ceremony" took place at 11.45 pm in the Constituent Assembly, where Nehru reportedly accepted the sceptre. Representing the ailing mutt seer, Sri La Sri Kumaraswamy Thambiran led the delegation to New Delhi, traveling on a special plane arranged by the government as reported widely. While they mentioned details of the sceptre's construction, the manufacturer, and the names of the group members attending the ceremony, they did not explicitly reference the "transfer of power".

Nonetheless, on the night of August 14, 1947, the ceremony proceeded as planned, with the mutt's delegation conducting the rituals under the guidance of the seer.

WHAT IS THE AADHEENAM SAYING?

The Thiruvavaduthurai Adheenam has denied allegations, though it say that the mutt seer did not have photographic evidence for handover of the sceptre between its representatives and Lord Mountbatten.

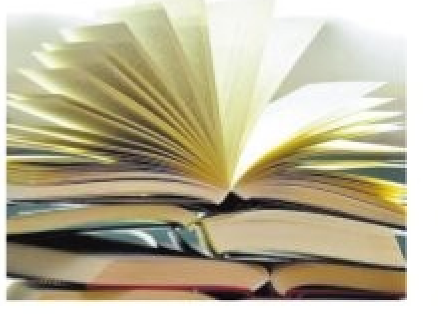
Poor show in Hindi in U'khand as many fail to clear exam

NARENDRA SETHI @ Dehradun



A total of 9,699 students failed in Hindi subject

THOUSANDS of board examinees in Uttarakhand suffered hugely this year for taking the Hindi subject lightly. A total of 9,699 students failed in the language subject in the High school-Intermediate examination. Of them, 3,263 are boys and 1,721 girls in high school and 2,923 boys and 1,792 girls at the intermediate level.

Interest of students in Hindi subject has decreased. The language is not taken seriously by a large number of students due to common parlance and official language. But it is mandatory to clear the subject. If a student does not pass in Hindi and passes in all other subjects, then he is considered a failure. It is necessary to get at least 33% marks in Hindi. Grace marks are unavailable in the subject.

According to the Council of Secondary Education, this year, 1,26,192 students took the exam in Hindi in high school, out of which 1,24,208 students passed while 4,984 students failed. "A total of 1,23,009 students appeared for the intermediate exam. Of them, 1,18,294 passed and 4,715 candidates failed. In high school and intermediate, 6,186 students and 3,513 girls failed in Hindi subject. According to information on subject-wise exams, the result was, 96.14% in Hindi subjects in high school, 96.78% in Urdu, 99.59% in Punjabi, 100% in Bengali, 95.55% in English, 96.77% in Sanskrit, 86.47% in Mathematics, 97.33% in Home Science, 86.30% in Science, 94.04% in Social Science, 98.04% in Information Technology. The pass percentage in Agriculture was 98.59%.

Commenting on the disappointing results in the Hindi subject, Anju Saini, a senior teacher from Biharigarh, Uttarakhand, told this newspaper, "The way the new generation is losing interest in the subject, it indicates how disillusioned the students are with Hindi. At the same time, this can prove to be even more problematic for the coming generation," said Saini.

NSCN wades into Manipur ethnic violence

PRASANTA MAZUMDAR @ Guwahati

AMID the turmoil in Manipur, the insurgent group National Socialist Council of Nagalim or NSCN (I-M) has claimed that six minor tribes are part of the Naga community.

"The NSCN puts on record that…Aimol, Chiru, Chothe, Kharam, Koireng and Kom are part of the Naga community and have been actively involved in the Nagas' political struggle for their freedom from India and Myanmar till our goal is achieved," it said in a statement.

Expressing regret that Kangathei, a Kom village in Manipur, came under attack from the Kuki militants and the villagers were forced to flee, the NSCN (I-M) said such "vicious violence" would only aggravate the situation and this must be put to stop forthwith for the sake of humanity and peaceful co-existence. Boxer MC Mary Kom comes from Kangathei. The NSCN (I-M) appealed to "our Meitei brothers and Kukis" not to view these tribes otherwise or harass them.

Government of India's "Glimpse of the Indigenous Tribes of Manipur" states that people belonging to Aimol and Chothe tribes speak the Kuki-Chin-Mizo language while those from the Chiru tribe speak Chiru dialect - one of Kuki-Chin-Naga languages.

Allahabad HC to hear all cases on Krishna birth place

Gives Mathura court 2 wks to list all such cases involving the dispute

NAMITA BAJPAI @ Lucknow

Land under question in holy city Mathura

The HC on May 3 reserved the order over a petition seeking transfer of the case, in which the Hindu side had claimed the right over the land on which Shahi Masjid Idgah stands, to High Court

THE Allahabad High Court on Friday transferred all suits related to the Shri Krishna Janmabhoomi-Shahi Idgah mosque dispute pending in the lower court of Mathura to itself. The High Court directed the Mathura court to transfer all such cases along with the relevant records to High Court within the next two weeks.

The High Court, on May 3, had reserved the order over a petition seeking transfer of the case, in which the Hindu side had claimed the right over the land on which the Shahi Masjid Idgah stands, to the High Court from Mathura lower court.

The single-judge bench of Allahabad High Court, comprising Justice Arvind Kumar Mishra, allowed the transfer application moved by the Hindu side -- Bhagwan Shri Krishna Virajman at Katra Keshav Dev Khewat, Mathura, through lawyer Ranjana Agnihotri and seven others.

"The instant transfer application is allowed…Let the district judge, Mathura prepare a list of all such cases of similar nature involving the subject matter and touching upon its periphery, expressly or by implication include particulars of such cases and these suits/cases along with the record… shall be duly forwarded to this court within two weeks and the same shall stand transferred to this court in exercise of suo motu powers of this court," the HC ordered.

The respondents in the case include Management Committee of Shahi Masjid Idgah, Shri Krishna Janmbhoomi Trust, Katra Keshav Dev, and Shri Krishna Jamna Sthan Sewa Sansthan.

The transfer plea filed by advocates Vishnu Shankar Jain, Prabhash Pandey and Pradeep Kumar Sharma claimed that the issues involved in the suits pending before the Mathura court concerned crores of devotees of Lord Krishna and the matter was of the national importance. Therefore, it should be heard by the High Court.

The petitioners had also claimed in the application seeking transfer of the cases that the suits pending before the Mathura court could conveniently be heard in the High Court as there were substantial questions of law involved and also those related to the interpretation of the Constitution of India. The respondents in the case include Management Committee of Shahi Masjid Idgah, Shri Krishna Janmbhoomi Trust, Katra Keshav Dev, and Shri Krishna Jamna Sthan Sewa Sansthan.

2 weeks' notice to SIC to upgrade to virtual services

Chhattisgarh High Court expressed its strong displeasure over the lukewarm move by the State Information Commission to improve its services in allowing the cases to be represented virtually for applicants/litigants. The court was surprised at the Commission having not upgraded their establishment when every judicial, quasi judicial forum has switched over to virtual courts to facilitate litigants. RTI activist and petitioner Rajkumar Mishra filed a plea in July 2019 seeking upgrade of the services in the Commission. Justice P Sam Koshy said it's almost 4 years and the petition was filed much before the Covid-19. HC has granted the Commission two weeks to upgrade.

Inclusivity at BALCO: More transgenders hired

As one of the first companies in Chhattisgarh and amongst few in the country, Bharat Aluminium Company Ltd (BALCO), has been hiring LGBTQIA+ in core manufacturing roles. With the transgender employees count at BALCO stands at 15, they are engaged in significant roles besides industrial security, material handling at its cast house, where the company's finished aluminium products are made. BALCO claimed to foster more diversity in their workforce and create a safe, inclusive and encouraging workplace for all.

BJP to consolidate minority support

The opposition BJP in Chhattisgarh is leaving no stone unturned to intensify its outreach to minorities. The party has prepared a strategy to reach out to them through the minorities booths, having their sizeable presence in a run-up to the Assembly polls due later this year. As a part of the party's proposed election campaign plan, the BJP minority morcha will meet spiritual leaders of minority communities and disseminate information about the Central welfare schemes and during its earlier 15-year-rule in the state. The party will identify the minority booths and the voters across all 35 districts. The minority cell has been assigned the responsibility to participate in the month-long 'Maha Jansampark Abhiyan' from May 30.

Punjab, HP in tussle over hydro project

HARPREET BAJWA @ Chandigarh

THE state governments of Punjab led by Aam Aadmi Party and Himachal Pradesh, led by the Congress are in a tussle over the Shanan hydropower station's lease that is ending in 2024. Commissioned in 1935 by the British, it was then the first hydroelectricity power station in the country in megawatts capacity setup in Jogindernagar in Mandi district, and was given to Punjab on a 99-year lease ending on March 2, 2024.

Himachal CM Sukhvinder Singh Sukhu has written a letter to his Punjab counterpart, which Bhagwant Mann received on May 17, stating, "The HP government has decided not to renew or extend the lease period of the project. It will soon deploy a team of engineers to take over the Shanan power project (110MW) along with all assets from Punjab State Power Corporation Limited.''

However, the Punjab government claims that under Section 48, sub-clause 1 of the Punjab Reorganization Act, the lease became null and void after Independence and hence the project belongs to Punjab. The project is worth Rs 1,600 crore.

Buzz in MP over BJP replacing party chief ahead of Assembly polls

ANURAAG SINGH @ Bhopal

POLITICAL circles in poll-bound Madhya Pradesh are abuzz over something big likely to happen in the ruling BJP. Rumours have it that a new state party president could be appointed. The Wednesday late-night meeting of senior party leaders, including CM Shivraj Singh Chouhan, Union ministers Narendra Singh Tomar and Prahlad Singh Patel and national general secretary Kailash Vijayvargiya at CM's residence in Bhopal followed by a tweet by Patel some hours later, has further fuelled the speculation.

Two days back, the two Union ministers along with the CM and Vijayvargiya (all four form part of the state party's core group) met at the CM's residence. Sources said the meeting assumed significance, particularly in the wake of rising discontent in the party cadre. Those airing their differences included former MLAs, Satyanarayan Sattan, Bhanwar Singh Shekhawat, Deepak Joshi (he joined Congress later), Harenderjeet Singh Babbu and Dhruv Pratap Singh, besides first-time MP from Guna, Dr KP Singh Yadav.

Union minister and powerful Lodhi caste leader Prahlad Singh Patel tweeted on Thursday. "I'm thankful to old friends and elders Shivraj Singh Chouhan, Narendra Singh Tomar and Kailash Vijayvargiya for helping me emerge from this difficult state of mind," Patel tweeted. The late-night meeting and Patel's tweet mentioning the 'purana prayog' (old experiment) was enough to make political circles speculate about the possible change of guard in the state BJP organization, particularly as present state chief VD Sharma (who is also the first-time Khajuraho MP) has completed three years as party president in February this year and has not had the best of results, particularly in the July 2022 mayoral polls.

Didi vs Guv over Bengal rural polls

PRANAB MONDAL @ Kolkata

AHEAD of the West Bengal Panchayat polls, tension between the Governor and state government re-surfaced over the issue of appointment of the state election commissioner (SEC). Governor CV Ananda Bose, who is also a former bureaucrat, sent back the state government's proposal of appointing former chief secretary Rajiva Sinha as the SEC.

"Five days after the state sent the proposal, the governor sent it back, seeking reasons for proposing Sinha's name," said an official at Nabanna, the state secretariat. Sinha, known as the state government's loyal bureaucrat, served as the chief secretary from September 2019 to September 2020 and after his retirement, CM Mamata Banerjee roped him in for various government responsibilities including his current position as the chairman of West Bengal Industrial Infrastructure Development Corporation.

The role of the SEC will be crucial in this year's rural polls as opposition parties have alleged that the ruling party will unleash violence like in 2018 forcing opposition candidates to not file nomination.

Rift in Maha alliance? Stepmotherly treatment by BJP, says Shinde MP

SUDHIR SURYAWANSH @ Mumbai

DIFFERENCES between BJP and Maharashtra CM Eknath Shinde-led Shiv Sena surfaced on Friday over power-sharing and seat-sharing for 2024 Lok Sabha elections. Shiv Sena's (Shinde) Lok Sabha MP Gajanan Kirtikar complained about stepmotherly treatment from BJP. He said Shinde Sena has 41 MLA and 13 Lok Sabha MPs, but they have not been given proper respect by the BJP.

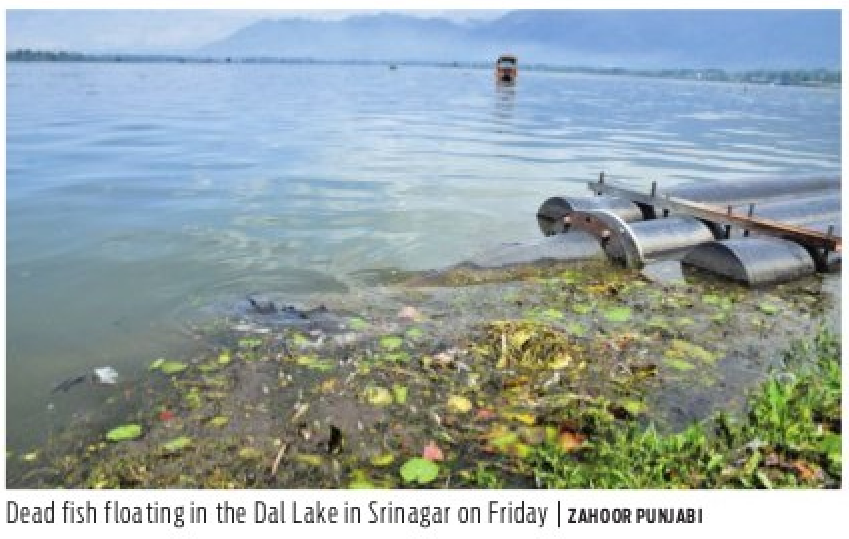
"Earlier, Shiv Sena was not part of the National Democratic Alliance (NDA), but now we are part of the NDA. We should be given the status and respect as NDA alliance partners and our work should be also done. We have been treated badly by the BJP," Kirtikar alleged.

The Lok Sabha MP said that they will put the claim 22 Lok Sabha seats in Maharashtra. In 2019, when BJP and Shiv Sena fought the elections together, BJP fought the 26 seats and won the 23 seats, while Shiv Sena contested 22 seats and won 18 seats. "It's our legitimate right to get the 22 seats as we contested on 22 seats in the last 2019 Lok Sabha elections. Our party should get our share," Kirtikar said. On the other hand, BJP leaders refused to comment over the demand of Shin Sena (Shinde)for Lok Sabha seats in 2024 Lok Sabha elections.

"Everyone knows what is the real strength of Eknath Shinde-led Shiv Sena in Maharashtra. They may be demanding 22 seats, but it is highly impossible, because conceding more seats to the Shinde-led Shiv Sena means throwing the seats to the Opposition without any major fight. BJP wants to contest as many as seats in Lok Sabha. We may accommodate them in state assembly elections, but not in Lok Sabha elections. Here, each seat is very important and crucial if BJP wants to come back to power," said a senior BJP leader requesting anonymity.

Uproar over thousands of dead fish in Dal Lake

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar



Dead fish floating in the Dal Lake in Srinagar on Friday | ZAHOOR PUNJABI

The sight of thousands of fish floating dead in Dal Lake, Srinagar since last few days has caused panic among the Dal dwellers and local fishermen.

Experts have attributed the mass death of fish to thermal stratification that occurs when the surface layer of the water, warmed by the sun, becomes less dense than the water underneath it.

Whereas, the Dal dwellers believe that the deaths are due to pollution by sewage and increase in the water level of the lake. "Since the last few days we are seeing dead fish in large numbers floating at different places in the lake. A foul odour has started emanating near a spring in the lake," said a Dal dweller Ghulam Rasool.

Vice chairman J&K Lake Conservation and Management Authority Dr Bashir Ahmed Bhat said it is a type of annual affair. "The most probable reason for it is thermal stratification," he said. Bashir said there is no need to panic as it is not unusual. "This is normal mortality of the fish."

Rejecting reports that the deaths may have been caused by pollution in the Dal Lake, he said, "The Dal water is clean. The water quality is good".

The Dal dwellers, however, say that pollution and increase in the water level of the lake may have caused fish deaths. "The lake authorities have kept the water level up. They have not opened the gates of Dal Lake and the water level is incredibly high which might have caused oxygen related problems for the fish leading to their deaths," they said.

Some Dal dwellers also blamed the pollution for the fish kill alleging that sewage is released into the lake. "People should avoid polluting the lake and sewage should not be released into the Dal waters," they said adding, "The unscientific and unregulated cleaning of the lake may also be the cause of the fish deaths".

The fishermen are worried over the fish kill situation.

"With thousands of fish deaths in Dal lake, our trade is likely going to be hit. People will now be apprehensive in buying the fish. They will prefer not to buy the fish for some time until there is some clarity from officials about the fish kill," he said.

Experts claim rise in temp, but locals cite pollution

Experts have attributed the mass death of fish to thermal stratification that occurs when the surface layer of the water, warmed by the sun, becomes less dense than the water underneath it. Whereas, the Dal dwellers believe that the deaths are due to pollution and increase in the water level. The lake authorities have not opened the gates and the high water level might have caused oxygen related problems.

C'garh food inspector drains out 41L litres of dam water to retrieve phone

EJAZ KAISER @ Raipur

IN a bizarre incident, a food inspector in Chhattisgarh drained out 41 lakh litres of dam water, meant for irrigation and other purposes, to retrieve his mobile phone that he accidently dropped into the reservoir on last Sunday. Rajesh Vishwas, a food inspector in Chhattisgarh's Kanker district, about 180 km south of Raipur, engaged two diesel 30-horsepower pumps continuously for four days to drain out the water for locating his phone.

The Samsung mobile phone, reportedly priced over ₹1 lakh, was retrieved on Thursday, but at a huge cost - the water pumped out was said to be sufficient to irrigate around 1,500 acres of agricultural land - and the phone is no longer in working condition. "My mobile phone fell in the reservoir, which had 10-ft water depth. On the advice of local divers who suggested to get the water level reduced by 2-3 feet so that it would be convenient to track down and retrieve the phone, I engaged diesel pumps. It was waste water drained out to a nearby canal for further use by the farmers", said Vishwas.

A sub-divisional officer of the water resource department RC Dhivar was said to have given the verbal permission to empty out the water to a maximum of five feet depth only. After colossal waste of water during the peak summer grabbed as headlines, the Kanker collector Priyanka Shukla suspended Vishwas on Friday.

The suspension order stated that Vishwas has drained 41,104 cubic metre water from the reservoir without permission to search his for mobile phone dropped and this act amounts to misusing his official position. He has been suspended.

A passenger opened an emergency exit on an Asiana Airlines flight as it was preparing to land on Friday, the carrier told AFP, adding that the plane landed safely but several people were hospitalised.

The plane was carrying nearly 200 passengers as it approached the runway at Daegu International Airport in South Korea, about 240 kilometres southeast of Seoul, on a domestic flight. When the plane was around 200 meters above the ground, a passenger sitting near the emergency exit "opened the door manually by touching the lever", the carrier's representative told AFP.

The incident caused some passengers to have breathing difficulties, and several people were taken to a hospital after the landing, Asiana said, adding that there were no major injuries or damage. Daegu police told AFP that they had taken in a man in his 30s for questioning over the incident.

South Korea's transport ministry said 12 people had been taken to hospital after the plane landed to deal with "discomfort and breathing issues".

The ministry confirmed that the plane door had been deliberately opened by a passenger while the plane was still in flight. "Police are questioning him jointly with the land and transport ministry over aviation safety laws violations," they said in a statement.

"Under these laws, a person who opens a plane door without authorisation is subject to a maximum sentence of 10 years in prison."

A short video of the incident shot by a passenger on board the Airbus A321-200 was broadcast by South Korea's Yonhap News Agency.

The footage showed wind ripping through the open door in mid-air, with fabric seat-backs and passengers' hair flapping wildly as some people shouted in surprise.

Another video shared on social media showed passengers sitting in the emergency exit row next to an open door being buffeted by strong winds. AFP

Two killed in Russian missile strike on clinic

2 children among at least 30 wounded in early morning attack in Dnipro; Moscow says its border regions bombed

MOSCOW

A Russian missile on Friday morning struck a medical facility in the central Ukrainian city of Dnipro, killing two and injuring 30 including two children, officials said.

Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelensky posted a video of smoke billowing from roofless buildings with blown-out windows.

"There are already 30 victims, including two children. There is still no contact with three people who may have been here," the head of the regional administration Sergiy Lysak wrote on Telegram.

He said the missile hit a residential area with a medical and veterinary clinic and high-rise blocks. "A 69-year-old man died. He was just passing by when a Russian terrorist missile hit the city," Lysak said of one victim. He added that the body of another man had been found in the rubble of the veterinary clinic. Zelensky said that by hitting civilian medical facilities, "Russian terrorists once again confirm their status of fighters against everything humane and honest."

His wife Olena Zelenska tweeted that the attack showed a "terrible level of cynicism".

The missile hit a clinic that offered mental health services as part of a larger hospital, said city mayor Borys Filatov in a video post.

Lysak said the injured included two boys aged three and six, who have been hospitalised along with 19 others.

Local media posted video footage of rescuers helping people with blood on their faces escape from the clinic through corridors full of rubble.

The three-storey building was partially destroyed and a fire spread over 1,000 square metres, Lysak wrote on Telegram, posting a video of firefighters aiming hoses at the smoking rubble.

Lysak said earlier that the Dnipropetrovsk region was "massively attacked" overnight "with rockets and drones".

In the city of Dnipro, overnight shelling set fire to a house and damaged two others, he said. Meanwhile, Russia's southern Belgorod region bordering Ukraine came under attack on Friday from Ukrainian artillery fire, mortar shells and drones, authorities said, hours after two drones struck a Russian city in an area next to the annexed Crimea Peninsula.

Video released by regional Governor Serhiy Lysak showed fire engulfing the three-story building that appeared almost destroyed, with only parts of a wall standing, as firefighters battled the flames. Agencies

Belarus claims Russia has begun moving nukes

MOSCOW

BELARUSIAN leader Alexander Lukashenko said on Thursday that Russia had begun moving nuclear weapons to its territory, which borders the European Union, ratcheting up tensions with the West over the Ukraine conflict.

On the diplomatic front, Russia's foreign ministry announced a visit to Moscow by China's special envoy for Ukraine, Li Hui – Beijing's latest effort to broker an end to the fighting.

A Lukashenko

Li's visit to the Russian capital, where he is expected to meet foreign minister Sergei Lavrov on Friday, comes after he met with Ukraine's President Volodymyr Zelensky in Kyiv. "The transfer of nuclear munitions has begun," Lukashenko told reporters.

In Washington, White House Press Secretary Karine Jean-Pierre called Russia's move "yet another example of making irresponsible and provocative choices".

She added, however, that "we have not seen any reason to adjust our own nuclear posture... nor any indication that Russia is prepared to use nuclear weapons from Belarus".

There was no immediate confirmation by Russia of the nuclear weapon transfer. Lukashenko has allowed his territory, which borders Ukraine as well as EU and NATO members Poland and Lithuania, to serve as a staging ground for Russia's Ukraine offensive. In March, Putin said he would station "tactical" nuclear weapons -- in effect short-range atomic missiles -- in Belarus.

Adding to the global worries, Russia said Thursday that it had sent fighter jets to stop two US bomber planes from "violating the state border" over the Baltic Sea, the second such incident this week. The Russian defence ministry said it had scrambled Su-27 and Su-35 fighter jets, saying it identified "the air targets as two US Air Force B-1B strategic bombers". AFP

Another senior leader resigns from Imran's party

ISLAMABAD

SENIOR leader Firdous Ashiq Awan resigned from Imran Khan's party on Friday over the recent violent and "terrorist activities" and said the former prime minister and Pakistan cannot go together, becoming the latest senior leader to quit the opposition party.

Awan, 53, served as Special Assistant to the Prime Minister on Information and Broadcasting from 2019 to 2020.

She is the latest politician who resigned from Khan's Pakistan Tehreek-e-Insaf (PTI) party. Awan, the former Federal Minister for Population Welfare, said she was parting ways with the PTI over the party's "violent and terrorist activities".

Firdous Ashiq Awan

"I believe that the martyrs their love and the country's respect are a part of our faith. Those who disrespected martyrs attacked Pakistan's foundation and ideology," she said.

"Imran Khan and Pakistan can't go together," she was quoted as saying by the Dawn newspaper. Her resignation came after other top PTI leaders - including the party's Secretary General Asad Umar, former information minister Fawad Chaudhry and former minister for human rights Shireen Mazari - parted ways with the main opposition party.

They condemned the actions of Khan's supporters who attacked and torched sensitive defence installations across Pakistan on May 9. On May 9, violent protests erupted after paramilitary Rangers arrested Khan from the Islamabad High Court (IHC) premises.

His party workers vandalised a dozen military installations, including the Lahore Corps Commander's House, the Mianwali airbase and the ISI building in Faisalabad in response to Khan's arrest.

The mob also stormed the Army headquarters (GHQ) in Rawalpindi for the first time.

Police put the death toll in violent clashes to 10 while Khan's party claims 40 of its workers lost their lives in the firing by security personnel.

Thousands of Khan's supporters were arrested following the violence that the powerful Army described as a 'dark day' in the history of the country. Prime Minister Shehbaz Sharif said on Sunday that those involved in attacks on military installations would be tried in the military courts while those charged with attacks on civilian targets would be prosecuted under civilian laws.

Pakistan's Defence Minister Khawaja Asif said on Wednesday the government was mulling a possible ban on Khan's PTI party following the attacks by his supporters on military installations after the former prime minister's arrest. PTI

Pope down with fever, skips weekly audience

VATICAN CITY

POPE Francis has a fever that caused him to clear his schedule on Friday morning, the Vatican said, nearly two months after the 86-year-old pontiff was hospitalised with bronchitis.

"Due to a feverish state, Pope Francis did not receive an audience this morning," said Vatican spokesman Matteo Bruni, without giving more details.

It was unclear who the pope had been expected to meet with, as his agenda was not made public on Friday, as is customary. Vatican Secretary of State Pietro Parolin blamed the pontiff's busy schedule, saying he was tired. "The pope was tired, yesterday he had a very busy day, he saw a lot of people .. he wanted to say hello to them all," said Parolin, according to Italian news agencies. "And probably at a certain point the resistence breaks down."

The Catholic leader had eight meetings Thursday, according to his published schedule. The pope's morning audiences are usually reserved for heads of states, associations and clerics, while his afternoons are devoted to work and private meetings.

Next on Francis' schedule is Sunday's mass at St Peter's Basilica to celebrate Pentecost, followed by the traditional Regina Coeli prayer.

On Monday, he is scheduled to meet with Italian President Sergio Mattarella. Francis, who has been the leader of the world's 1.3 billion Catholics for a decade, has suffered increasing health issues over the past year, from persistent pain in his right knee to sciatica to his recent hospital stay for bronchitis. AFP

Pak SC stops judicial probe into audio leaks involving court's judges

ISLAMABAD

PAKISTAN'S Supreme Court on Friday stopped a judicial probe from investigating the audio leaks involving, among others, judges of the court. The order is a setback for the government in the ongoing struggle between the executive and judiciary which began when the government refused to provide funds for holding elections in the Punjab province.

A five-member bench comprising Chief Justice Umar Ata Bandial, Justice Ijazul Ahsan, Justice Munib Akhtar, Justice Syed Hasan Azhar Rizvi, and Justice Shahid Waheed issued their reserved verdict. The bench in the order also suspended the operation of the federal government's notification on the constitution of a judicial panel.

"In the circumstances, till the next date of hearing, the operation of the impugned notification No.SRO.596(I)/2023 dated 19.05.2023 issued by the federal government is suspended as is the order dated 22.05.2023 made by the Commission and in consequence thereof proceedings of the Commission are stayed," the top court said. The government last week formed a three-member commission led by Supreme Court judge Qazi Faez Isa and two high court judges to probe audio leaks which have surfaced on social media over the last few months and also involved a sitting judge of the court as well audios of relatives of the chief justice.

As the commission sat down to work, a set of petitions were moved by Supreme Court Bar Association (SCBA) President Abid Shahid Zuberi, SCBA Secretary Muqtedir Akhtar Shabbir, PTI Chairman Imran Khan and Advocate Riaz Hanif Rahi seeking to declare the constitution of the commission illegal. The chief justice during the hearing observed that the government had tried to interfere in the affairs of the judiciary as it appointed a judge as the chairman of the commission without seeking permission of the chief justice. PTI

Q4 GDP growth pegged at 4.9-5.7%

Economists attribute higher growth rate to pick-up in demand for services and capex cycle

MONIKA YADAV @ New Delhi

ECONOMISTS are expecting the gross domestic product (GDP) growth rate for the fourth quarter of FY23 in the range of 4.9%-5.7%, compared to 4.4% in the third quarter.

The higher growth rate has been attributed to pick-up in demand for services and capex cycle. The government will announce Q4 GDP numbers on 31 May. While Aditi Nayar of ICRA projected the growth of Q4 GDP at 4.9% as against 4.4% recorded in the third quarter of FY23, Soumya Kanti Ghosh, group chief economist with the State Bank of India (SBI) expects it to be at 5.5%.

"Economic activity in Q4 FY2023 remained uneven, with domestic demand for services outpacing that for goods and surprisingly robust exports of services amid a contraction in merchandise items. Lower commodity prices offered relief for margins in some sectors, while trends in investment activity and government spending were mixed. However, unseasonal rains are expected to have affected the rabi output of some crops, weighing upon the growth of the agri gross value added (GVA)," Nayar with ICRA said.

As per Ghosh of SBI, corporate results, barring BFSI, for Q4FY23 shows both top line and bottom-line growth of about 10%, while EBIDTA grew by 7% as against Q4FY22. "Further, it is pertinent to mention that corporate margin, which was continuously under pressure for last few quarters, shown sign of improvement in Q4FY23. As reflected in results of nearly 1,500 listed entities ex BFSI, EBIDTA margin, on aggregate basis, improved from 13.96% in Q4FY22 to 14.34% in Q4FY23," he stated in the report. "SBI's ANN (Artificial Neural Network) model, based on 30 high frequency indicators from key sectors, and tuned/trained to project the GDP numbers forecasts the quarterly GDP growth for the Q4FY23 at 5.5%. At this rate, India's GDP growth for FY23 is likely at 7.1%," Ghosh was quoted saying in the SBI report.

Gaura Sen Gupta, economist at IDFC First Bank, predicts a 5.1% growth in the fourth quarter. As per her, the recovery is likely to be led by services sector with a pick-up in trade, hotel and transportation and government expenditure.

Unseasonal rains may impact agri GVA growth

Lower commodity prices offered relief for margins in some sectors, while trends in investment activity and government spending were mixed. Unseasonal rains may have weighing upon growth of the agri gross value added (GVA)

SINGAPORE

DECLINE IN GDP RAISES RECESSION FEAR

Contraction in Singapore's economy in the first quarter of 2023 raised the risk of a recession in the city-state as the global economic outlook weakens and China struggles for a post-Covid lift-off. The country's gross domestic product jumped 0.4% on a year-on-year basis in Q1, official data showed on Thursday. Seasonally adjusted basis, the economy shrank 0.4% quarter-on-quarter, a reversal from the 0.1% growth in the fourth quarter of 2022. The contraction economic growth of the city-state gave rise a risk of a technical recession in the event of another shrink in the current quarter. Singapore, a major financial hub, is reliant on trade flow to keep its economy humming. The external demand has gone down in the wake of rising borrowing costs and persisting inflationary pressures.

India appeals against WTO ruling on ICT product

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

INDIA has appealed against a World Trade Organisation (WTO) ruling, which stated the country's import duties on certain information and technology (ICT) products are inconsistent with global trade norms.

The country filed an appealed to the WTO's apex dispute resolution authority, the Appellate Body.

"India appeals and requests the Appellate Body to reverse, modify, or declare moot and of no legal effect of the findings, conclusions, rulings, and recommendations of the panel," the WTO has said.

According to the report, India seeks a review by the Appellate Body of the "errors of law" and legal interpretation by the panel in its report.

On April 17, the dispute resolution panel of the WTO had in its report has termed India's high import duty on information and communications technology (ICT) products as illegal.

In 2019, the European Union, Japan and Taiwan had challenged the import duties in the range of 7.5-20% on certain electronic products.

While ruling in favour of the European Union, the world trade body observed that India's violation has affected European Union exports of such goods by up to ₹600 million annually.

The European Union had challenged India's introduction of import duties between 7.5% and 20% for products such as mobile phones, mobile phone components and accessories, line telephone handsets, base stations, static converters or electric wires and cables.

If India complies with the ruling, the country will have to reduce the import duty on these items.

AMID mixed global cues, domestic equity market extended its previous session rally on Friday, with the Sensex and the Nifty50 climbing more than 1% each. The surge was aided by buying in index heavyweight Reliance Industries Ltd (RIL) and IT stocks.

BSE Sensex surged about 629.07 points to close at 62,501.69, while NSE's Nifty50 rose 178.20 points to settle at 18,499.35. Investors added about ₹2.5 lakh crore and the total market capitalisation of BSE grew to ₹282.59 lakh crore at the end of Friday session.

All the 13 major sectoral indices advanced, with the IT pack rising nearly 1.5% after a sharp recovery in the tech-heavy Nasdaq index in the US market. Development in US debt ceiling talks ahead of the June 1 deadline also supported the sentiment across global markets.

Shares of Mukesh Ambani-led Reliance Industries gained about 3% on Friday, contributing more than 200 points to the 600-point Sensex surge. Sun Pharma, HCL Tech, HUL and Wipro were the other top gainers. "Despite weak cues from global markets, the domestic market defied the trend and experienced a widespread rally, driven by the strong growth forecast for the Indian economy," said Vinod Nair, Head of Research at Geojit Financial Services.

"With the upcoming Q4 GDP data, it is anticipated that India's FY23 GDP will marginally surpass the earlier projected 7.0% growth rate. Additionally, the expectation of a normal monsoon and consistent FII buying further boosted confidence among domestic investors," he added

Christopher Wood, global head of equity strategy at Jefferies, in a note wrote Sensex would hit 1,00,000 mark in a matter of time. This target, according to Wood, is achievable assuming a 15% growth in earnings growth and a five-year average forward price-to-earnings multiple of 19.8 times.

"Zooming into 15 min chart, we observe that while the Nifty broke the 18250 supports in the morning session, it held on to the 61.8% retracement of the recent upmove which comes to 18197. Further upsides are likely once immediate resistance of 18344 is taken out," said Subash Gangandharan, Senior Technical and Derivative Analyst at HDFC Securities. FIIs have pumped in over ₹20,600 crore so far in May.

After slow start, banks witness rush to exchange, deposit ₹2000 notes

SACHIN KUMAR @ Mumbai

AFTER seeing a slow start, banks have begun to see rise in number of people coming to exchange or deposit ₹2,000 notes.

More customers are turning up to exchange the notes while the number customers coming to depsot the notes are comparatively less. One of the reasons for increasing rush is drastic fall in the acceptance of ₹2,000 notes in retail stores and other commercial establishments.

Shopkeepers have stopped accepting the highest denomination currency. With nowhere left to go with these notes, customers are heading to bank branches to get rid of ₹2000 notes.

"The crowd was less than expected on Tuesday and Wednesday as most of the customers did not come to exchange notes fearing a huge crowd. But in the past two days, there is a surge in the number of customers coming for exchanging and depositing ₹2000 notes," a branch manager of a private sector bank told this newspaper. "We are not asking customers to fill out any form to exchange the notes or deposit the notes. We have not received any new directives from the government regarding the exchange and deposit of notes," he added. If a customer comes to deposit over ₹10 lakh, he is required to provide source of his income in writing, but this requirement is unrelated to ₹2000 notes withdrawal. This requirement existed even before the announcement to withdraw ₹2000 notes. "We have stopped taking ₹2000 notes from the customers," a chemist in Mumbai told this newspaper. Banks are not the only places to see a rush of customers, jewellers are also seeing customers lining up to buy costly gold and diamond jewellery.

"Cash transactions have sharply risen and we are definitely witnessing some rush situations in the market. The phasing out of Rs2,000 notes has created a sense of urgency among the people to safeguard their monetary value by investing in jewellery," said Eshwar Surana, MD, Raj Diamonds, Bangalore.

VIL urges telecom companies to stop unlimited data plans

RAKESH KUMAR @ New Delhi

Happy Holi
V!

TELECOM service provider Vodafone Idea Limited (VIL) has requested its competitor to stop the practice of offering unlimited data plans.

Akshaya Moondra, CEO of Vodafone Idea, called it a reason that telecom companies are not able to raise its ARPU (average revenue per user). "So we need to move in a direction where there is a fixed charge for availing of the connection and then we pay based on usage. So, we constructively need to move in that direction as an industry," said Moondra, in an earning call.

He further said the biggest factor which has impacted the ARPU growth is the trend of daily limits. "So whether you use 5GB in a month or you use 28 GB in a month, you pay the same. It doesn't happen in any industry," he added.

VIL's ARPU in January-March 2023 quarter was ₹135 compared to ₹198 of Bharti Airtel and ₹179 of Reliance Jio. VIL's ARPU has grown at a CAGR of 5.1% over the past five years.

Last month, the telco complained to the Telecom Regulatory Authority of India (Trai) against telecom service providers' providing unlimited data plans. The company accused Jio and Airtel of indulging in predatory pricing with their respective unlimited 5G offers. Both the companies are providing 5G data at the same rate of 4G services. Subsequently, VIL urged the industry leaders, primarily Jio and Airtel, to take lead to hike tariff. "We are watching this space. We will be happy to know any tariff improvement action by the market leaders because we do believe that the tariffs need to go up. We will not be able to take the lead on that (tariff hike)," said Moondra. India's third largest telco also maintained it has not seen any subscribers lost because of not having 5G services. As per the fourth quarter result, the company lost churn in this quarter, and in fact its 4G subscriber base rose to 122.6 million as against 121.6 million in Q3FY23.

On funding, Moondra said VIL continues to remain engaged with lenders for debt fundraising. Once funds are in place, the company will invest in network expansion so that it can arrest the loss of subscribers and roll out 5G.

'Unlimited data plans reason for low ARPU'

Akshaya Moondra, CEO of Vodafone Idea, called unlimited data plans offered by the telcos a reason that telecom companies are not able to raise its ARPU (average revenue per user). He further said the biggest factor which has impacted the ARPU growth is the trend of daily limits

Swiggy valuation cut 10% to $6.5 bn

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Bengaluru

US-based Baron Capital has once again marked down food delivery company Swiggy's valuation by another 10%.

With this, Baron Capital is valuing Swiggy at $6.5 billion as of March 31, 2023. Earlier as of December 31, 2022, the asset management firm had slashed the fair value of Swiggy by 34% to $7.3 billion. Apart from Baron, another US-based firm Invesco too slashed Swiggy's valuation recently to $5.5 billion. Previously it had slashed the foodtech major's valuation from $10.7 billion to about $8 billion.

In January last year, Swiggy raised $700 million in new funding led by Invesco, and it turned a decacorn as valuation crossed over $10.7 billion. This cut in valuation indicates that investors are remaining cautious amid macroeconomic challenges.

On May 18, Swiggy CEO and co-founder Sriharsha Majety informed that as of March 2023, Swiggy's food delivery business has turned profitable (after factoring in all corporate costs; excluding employee stock option costs). "This is a milestone for food delivery globally, not just for us, as Swiggy has become one of the very few global food delivery platforms to achieve profitability in less than 9 years since its inception," he said.

"We strongly believe it's still very early days in India's journey of eating out and food delivery, and are very sanguine about the growth potential over the next two decades," he said.

Swiggy plans to make measured interventions to fuel further growth in food delivery. In FY22, its losses more than doubled at ₹3,629 crore compared to ₹1,612 crore in FY21. Swiggy's revenues increased to ₹6,120 crore from ₹2,675.9 crore in the previous fiscal.

Jet Airways bidder gets 3 more mnths to pay lenders

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

THE NCLAT on Friday granted the Jalan-Kalrock consortium (JKC), the successful bidder for grounded Jet Airways, 97 days extension to pay a guarantee of ₹150 core to the State Bank of India (SBI).

The appellate tribunal extended the timeline for payment obligation as it excluded the time period between November 16, 2022, and March 3, 2023, the duration when it was hearing the petition filed by lenders.

The National Company Law Appellate Tribunal (NCLAT) also restrained lenders, especially SBI, from invoking bank guarantees provided by JKC. The appellate tribunal reiterated that efforts by the monitoring panel of lenders and the consortium should be coordinated for the revival of Jet Airways "so as to start its operations at an early date, which is in the interest of all stakeholders".

It has also allowed the lenders' plea for appointment to the Board of Directors of Jet Airways. NCLAT has directed listing of the matter on July 12 for hearing. Jet Airways stopped flying in April 2019 and later the JKC emerged as the winning bidder under the insolvency resolution process.

However, ownership transfer has been hanging fire amid continuing differences between the lenders and the consortium. Currently, the affairs of the grounded airline is being managed by the Monitoring Committee (MC) of lenders.

The consortium was to infuse ₹175 crore, first tranche of money within 180 days by May 15, 2023. The consortium approached NCLAT fearing encashment of its bank guarantee and said as no corresponding steps are taken by lenders, first tranche of money could not be infused.

BATMAN AND SHUBERMAN

Gujarat opener maintains touch, helps team beat Mumbai in Qualifier 2 and sets up meeting with CSK in final

GOMESH S @ Ahmedabad

IT was the eighth over of the Gujarat Titans' innings. Mumbai Indians had just broken the opening partnership in the over before, thanks to Piyush Chawla who had deceived Wriddhiman Saha with Ishan Kishan stumping his counterpart. Titans were 62/1 after 7.3 overs, but the game hadn't slipped away from Mumbai Indians. At least not yet.

And then that happened. Kumar Kartikeya fired one into the pads of Shubman Gill who was batting on 36 from 24 balls. The ball hit the pads and rolled onto the off-side with Gill well outside the crease trying to balance himself. Ishan Kishan moved to his right, and rolled the ball back into the stumps, albeit not quick enough. Gill was back in the crease. If that was too close to call as a missed chance, the next ball wasn't.

Gill rocked back to pull Kartikeya into the legside. It was heading straight into the hands of Tilak Varma who wasn't moving towards the ball. Varma waited for it and the ball just fell short of him to take it on the bounce. Twice in two balls, Gill had gotten lifelines. He was coming off a bad innings against Chennai Super Kings in Qualifier 1 in Chennai and was not going to let go of it this time around.

Chawla was launched into the stands as Gill danced down the ground to lift the leggie downtown. In no time, he had reached his fifty off 32 balls, but the story had just begun. Over the next fourteen balls, the 23-year-old showed why he is going to rule world cricket in the coming decade. Name all the shots in the textbook — sweep, flick behind square, stand tall and pull, lofting with powerful wrists over midwicket, whip off the hips, rock back and pull a spinner, jump down the track to hit the spinner over his head — he did it all.

BRIEF SCORES

GT 233/3 in 20 ovs (Gill 129, Sai Sudharsan 43) bt MI 171 in 18.2 ovs (Suryakumar 61, Tilak 43; Mohit 5/9).

Gill raced to 98 runs off 47 balls, with not just the fans, but even the commentators going gaga over his stroke-making. It was the kind of innings you would play in Real Cricket with Gill on your mobile or EA Cricket on your laptop.

The shot he played to get to his century was perhaps anti-climactic – he nudged Cameron Gill down the ground and strutted for a single before leaping for a roar while getting to the other end and doing the customary hat tip. Ian Bishop, who seemed beaming with pride in his voice, aptly said, "IPL 2023 will be remembered as the season of Shubman Gill." There could not be a truer statement. 851 runs in 16 innings, three hundreds in four innings at a strike rate of 156.43 is as close as anyone has come in breaching the 973 runs Virat Kohli scored in the 2016 season. Jos Buttler made 863 runs in 2022 in 17 innings, but Gill has a realistic chance of getting past Kohli should the Titans qualify for the final.

The carnage did not stop after the century, it rather aggravated as Mumbai Indians skipper Rohit Sharma even applauded some of the shots Gill played. In a Green over, Gill would launch a slower ball over his head before pulling him, picking the gap for a four, and bringing out his trademark short-arm jab to send the ball into the stands. When Chris Jordan went full and wide, Gill would open the face of his bat and guide the balls to the ropes. He eventually fell to Akash Madhwal, who had dismissed him early the last time these two teams met, but not before smashing 129 runs from 60 balls, helping Titans get to 233/3 in 20 overs.

While it was always going to be an uphill task, losing Ishan Kishan to injury and Sharma early did not help MI's cause. Varma (43 off 14) once again showed why he is one of the stars of the future and Suryakumar Yadav kept the chase alive till the 15th over. The Mumbaikar took on Rashid Khan and Noor Ahmed, shielding the other batters, but once he got out (61 from 38) to Mohit Sharma, the five-time champions' hopes were all but over. Mohit went on a rampage, taking four more wickets as he brought down the curtains to Mumbai's campaign this season. They were eventually all out for 171, falling short by 62 runs.

There were several cameos from batters who put on a stellar show — B Sai Sudharsan (43), Hardik Pandya (28), Varma, and SKY — but on Friday in Ahmedabad, there was one star. And the name to remember is Shubman Gill.

Kings, fans and ... flight of fancy

GOMESH S @Ahmedabad

THE 12.30 PM flight that was set to leave for Ahmedabad from the Chennai airport on Friday hadn't left the dock at the scheduled time of departure. However, no one was focussing on that, at least not the passengers who were on board. Their attention was elsewhere — on the 2023 IPL finalists Chennai Super Kings contingent who were settling in the front half of the airplane.

Even as they settled in, the rest weren't. They were all trying to get a glimpse of their favourite cricketing stars, MS Dhoni in particular, right from the slope that took you to the dock to board the plane till the moment the seat belt sign went on. If one were to look up from their seat, all you could see are hands and mobile phones zoomed in, trying to get a picture or a video of whomever they could get in the frame. They didn't care about the name of the players, heck most of them weren't even sure who is who, for them, the yellow jersey was all that mattered.

It took about 25 minutes past the scheduled time as everyone settled in and the plane took off. That said it was only a matter of time before the fans tried different methods of smarts to sneak in and get a picture or a recording of the players. For example, an elderly woman in the back of the plane was straightforward. She called upon a player who was standing and talking with a friend seated in the back, 'Excuse me, just one minute sir' asking him to turn around so that she could click a picture. Probably not satisfied with the angle/clarity, she would walk out of her seat to stand in front of him and click a picture of him, not with him, again as the player resorted to an awkward smile. It was clear that she did not know who the player was, nor was she interested in that. She then walked up to the front to seek permission for taking pictures only to be sent back.

Meanwhile, a middle-aged man — seated next to the friend of the aforementioned player was talking to randomly — asked the player if he had tickets. 'Get me a ticket, no, I will come and cheer for you,' he would say as the player replied his belongings are in the bags. Without any hesitation, the middle-aged man would ask him to see if he can check and let him know. He would later take a young kid seated in front of him and walk him to the lavatory in the front — the plan it seemed was to record on the kid's mobile. They would be back in a few minutes with little success, but with the confirmation that Dhoni is sitting in the front.

A while after, he would take another kid from the same row, presumably the earlier kid's sibling, to do a repeat of the same. Except this time, he would be stopped by the franchise officials. There were several others who were talking about which player is standing and who is sitting in which row. Many, understandably, did not want to invade the privacy of the players too much and were happy to click pictures from away. The flight would eventually land in Ahmedabad at 2.50 PM. The CSK team, led by Dhoni, were welcomed by a significant crowd. Some of them, including those who just landed, ran behind to see if they could get a closer glimpse of them. They might have been unsuccessful in their attempts, but those who were on that plane and both Chennai and Ahmedabad airports on Friday afternoon, including this reporter, walked away with stories they could recount for a long time.

The Asian Junior championships is scheduled to be held in Yogyakarta, Indonesia from July 7 to 16. The trials will include top-8 boys and girls singles shuttlers as well as top-4 pairs from doubles events from the All India Junior Ranking Badminton Tournament held in Guwahati earlier this month, along with top-4 singles players and top-2 doubles pairs in BAI rankings.

Weightlifting trials for Asiad on June 30

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Chennai

THE Indian Weightlifting Federation (IWLF) will hold selection trials to select the national team for the Asian Games on June 30. Only those who are part of the national camp can take part in the trials scheduled at the NIS Patiala. The federation has also set qualification criteria to select the lifters during the trials.

"Eight lifters (two women and six men) are presently training at the Sports Authority of India's Shilaroo Centre in Himachal Pradesh. The high altitude training started on May 21 and will continue till June 24 after which the selection trials will be organised to pick the team for the Asian Games," Vijay Sharma, weightlifting head coach, told this daily.

The men lifters training at the camp are Sanket Sargar, Jeremy Lalrinnunga, Achinta Sheuli, N Ajith and Shubham Todkar. Apart from them, Saikhom Mirabai Chanu and S Bindyarani Devi are the two women lifters at the camp.

Mirabai Chanu

The Indian lifters competed in the Asian Championships held in Jinju, South Korea earlier this month. Two of them — Tokyo Olympics silver medallist Mirabai and Bindyarani — then headed to St Louis, USA for rehabilitation. Bindyarani had won silver while Mirabai finished sixth after failing to complete two lifts in both snatch and clean and jerk sections at the continental meet. Mirabai reportedly had a hip joint issue which hampered her show at the event. The duo attended a rehabilitation camp at Squat University in St Louis with Dr Aaron Horschig, a former weightlifter-turned-physiotherapist. "Mira is okay now. Such issues keep cropping up in weightlifting. Now she is training for the Asiad," added the coach.

According to the criteria posted by the IWLF on its website, the minimum qualifying standards (MQS) for men shall be the 10th best and for women shall be 8th best lift by the Asian in the 2022 IWF World Ranking List. In accordance with the criteria, the MQS stands at 271kg in 61kg, 305 in 67kg, 310 in 73kg, 328 in 81kg, 360 in 96kg, 371 in 109kg and 398 in +109kg in men's section. For women, it will be 173kg in 49kg, 198 in 55kg, 202 in 59kg, 210 in 64kg, 219 in 76kg, 229 in 87kg and 240 in +87kg.

A maximum of two lifters can be selected in a weight category. Overall, a maximum of 14 lifters (seven men and as many women) can be sent to the Asiad.

Football's richest match today

The winner will earn a guaranteed £170 mn. A look at the Championship final between Coventry and Luton...

What's at stake?	Richest and how?
The play-off final, the winner will be promoted to the Premier League, one of the richest sporting leagues on the planet. Burnley and Sheffield United have already earned promotion to the PL following the culmination of the league season	Thanks to a landmark TV rights deal, all clubs that play in the Premier League earn a set amount of money per season. It's estimated to be around £170 mn even if Luton and/or Coventry suffer relegation from the top flight after one season. But there's more to it, this time

WHY?

Only a few seasons ago, both of those clubs were staring at oblivion. They were both in League Two (the last professional tier in England) in 2018. Before rapid promotions up the tiers, they had tasted mutiny, points deductions and losses.

Have they featured in the PL before?

Luton Town have never been in the Premier League but were in the old first division before. Coventry City were a prominent PL team in the 90s before they suffered relegation in 2000-01 season.

Man Utd win to seal CL berth

MANCHESTER: Manchester United sealed qualification for next season's Champions League with a 4-1 thrashing of beleaguered Chelsea on Thursday.

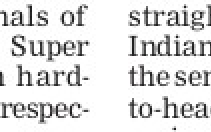
Casemiro, Anthony Martial, Bruno Fernandes and Marcus Rashford were on target as the Red Devils moved up to third in the Premier League.

A miserable night summed up Chelsea's season despite spending over £500 million in the transfer market as they slumped to an eighth defeat in 10 games since Frank Lampard returned as interim manager. By contrast, confirmation of a top-four finish rounds off a successful first season in charge for Erik ten Hag after also ending United's six-year trophy drought by winning the League Cup in February. More silverware could be to come next month should United halt Manchester City's charge towards the treble in the FA Cup final.

Sindhu and Prannoy book last-four berths

AGENCIES @ Kuala Lumpur

STAR Indian shuttlers PV Sindhu and HS Prannoy advanced to the women's and men's singles semifinals of the Malaysia Masters Super 500 tournament with hard-fought wins over their respective opponents here on Friday.



While double Olympic medallist Sindhu, seeded sixth in the tournament, beat lower-ranked Yi Man Zhang of China 21-16, 13-21, 22-20, Prannoy earned a 25-23, 18-21, 21-13 win over Kenta Nishimoto of Japan in the quarterfinals.

Sindhu faces seventh seed and World No 9 Gregoria Mariska Tunjung of Indonesia in the semifinals on Saturday. Tunjung upset second seed Yi Zhi Wang of China in the quarterfinals 21-18, 22-20.

Tunjung has been in fine form recently and Sindhu had lost to her in the Madrid Spain Masters final in straight games in April. The Indian will, however, go into the semifinals with a 7-1 head-to-head advantage over Tunjung. World No 9 Prannoy faces qualifier Christian Adinata, ranked 57, of Indonesia, who beat Kidambi Srikanth 16-21, 21-16, 21-11 in another quarterfinals, in the semifinals of Saturday.

Prannoy has never played against the 21-year-old Adinata, who began playing at the senior level just last year.

For World No 13 Sindhu, it was a revenge of sort for her round-of-32 loss to Zhang, ranked 18th, in the All England Open earlier this year.

Tough start for India under new coach Fulton

ENS @ Chennai

NELSON Onana's close-range finish in the final minute meant India began life under the new regime on a losing note. Olympic champions Belgium had opened the scoring through Thibeau Stockbroekx in the second quarter before Mandeep Singh had equalised. The Pro League encounter, being played in London, looked headed to a shoot-out when Onana pounced on a rebound to divert it goalwards. India had to defend a penalty corner in the final minute but an inspired PR Sreejesh kept out the drag-flick from Nicolas de Kerpel. However, Onana nudged the ball past the line.

Action from the match between India and Belgium on Friday | SPECIAL ARRANGEMENT

While the defeat will hurt, it offered glimpses into the kind of style new coach Craig Fulton wants to play. Like he had promised during his first press conference, that 'defend to win' mentality was present. The team didn't fly out the blocks, the press was more measured and they did a good job of restricting a Belgium side that has seen some turnover in the last few months. Fulton's wards, who are leading the Pro League table for now, began well but Belgium slowly started asserting themselves on the game, while they didn't threaten, they recycled the ball well, kept their defences clean and looked unhurried. They also upset the Indians as they went aerial on a few occasions. After they squandered a few chances, they were celebrating the opener, a smartly taken goal by Stockbroekx who managed to divert the ball home after the Indian defence failed to clear the loose ball following a penalty corner.

Less than 10 minutes, India were on the board. After Vivek Sagar Prasad earned the side their first penalty corner, a fierce Harmanpreet Singh drive was blocked on the goal-line by a Belgian leg. Even as the umpire was ready to signal a stroke, Mandeep Singh reacted quickest.

At half-time, Fulton mentioned that it was a chess match and that the pace should quicken. The next two stanzas were pretty much like the first two, with India holding shape and asking Belgium to make the running while remaining on the look out for counters.

‘I STOLE MY PROTAGONIST FROM SUDHIR MISHRA’

Filmmaker Anurag Kashyap, who is back to Cannes, talks about the world premiere of his latest film, Kennedy, the connection he feels with south India, and more

NAMRATA JOSHI

ANURAG Kashyap is a Cannes veteran. He probably knows the bylanes of the French Riviera like he knows Bandra and Andheri. Both as a producer and a director, Anurag has been visiting Cannes with some of the best Indian films over the past decade. This time around, it is for the world premiere of his directorial, Kennedy, which is featured in the Midnight Madness section of the Cannes Film Festival.

Veteran filmmaker Sudhir Mishra was the guest of honour at the premiere of the film, dedicated to him. “I stole my protagonist from Sudhir. In 2003, he was making a film with Sanjay Dutt and Tejaswini Kolhapure, produced by TuTu Sharma, and I was writing it,” said Kashyap about the Sudhir project, which got shelved later. Mishra’s stories about a real-life cop named Uday Shetty, formed the base of Kashyap’s Kennedy, which stars Rahul Bhat as Uday Shetty. The cop from the ’80s has turned into a new-age officer, operating in times of a pandemic, in Anurag’s noir thriller about an underground cop who’s on a secret mission to kill. The protagonist is also a mourning father, simmering with rage and revenge, trying to find salvation and reconnect with his estranged family, and particularly, the daughter.

Another interesting addition to the ‘Thank You’ list is Vijay Sethupathi. “He helped me find the character and the film. He is such a sharp mind, and he put the entire film together for me in one line,” says Kashyap, who heads to Chennai after Cannes to shoot with the actor for Nithilan Swaminathan’s next, Maharaja. There is more to the film’s south connect. The original choice for the titular character of Kennedy was actor Vikram, whose real name happens to be Kennedy John Victor (which is the inspiration for the title). “There was a miscommunication. For eight months, I was trying to reach him by sending messages to a wrong number. Sobhita [Dhulipala] who was shooting with him for Ponniyin Selvan brought this to his notice finally,” reveals Kashyap in this interview, hours before the premiere. “Unfortunately, we were already six months into the prep and ready for the shoot, but he was so gracious and expressed his happiness that my film was named after him.”

Bhat proved to be an able second choice, giving his all to the role. “He has this sense of egolessness,” says Kashyap about the actor, adding, “His performance was so consistent and outstanding, and that became a binding factor in the film.” While he may have worked before with Bhat, this is the first time he is collaborating with Sunny Leone (who plays Charlie). Sharing that Leone was always his choice for Charlie, who unexpectedly crosses paths with the killer Kennedy, Kashyap says, “I find her a fascinating, underutilised, underrated person, and extremely professional.”

XPRESS FOCUS SMD INITIATIVE

Treading on the ‘ROYAL’ PATH

Royal Mart has a vision to get to a score of 300 stores in South India including 150 stores within Bangalore urban and rural by 2030.

THREE young friends, Naseer K K, Saleem, and Noufal CK, with their second- and third-generation business backgrounds, founded a Supermarket on July 22, 2010. From humble beginnings, their venture has flourished into a thriving supermarket chain with nearly 30 stores, employing approximately 1200 individuals.

Branded as Royal Mart, their first store was a modest 6,000 sq. ft supermarket located in Padmanabhnagar, which remains operational to this day. Anoop Vijayan, Head of Sales & Operations, revealed that their next venture was in Yelahanka, spanning 12,000 to 14,000 sq. ft and equipped with a warehouse. “The strategic location in Yelahanka, a promising residential area with a significant population of defense officers and others, proved fortunate for their business. This success led to rapid expansion, and Royal Mart now boasts an impressive network of 30 stores across Bangalore,” he said.

The store follows a unique concept with a minimum of two floors. Our supermarket model, consisting of 20 to 23 outlets, falls somewhere between a traditional supermarket and a hypermarket. The stores are spacious, ranging from 12,000 to 20,000 sq. ft., and are acquired through long-term lease agreements. Notably, the company operates without any debt, ensuring a financially stable foundation for growth and sustainability.

Most Royal Mart supermarkets are on the outskirts and periphery of Bangalore City, in places like Rajanakunte, M S Palya, Abbigere, Yelahanka, Sahakarnagar, Kodigehalli, K R Puram, Whitefield, Jayanagar 7th Block, and Rajarajeshwari Nagar in Uttarahalli.

“Our research reveals that within Bangalore urban and rural, 1500 supermarkets already exist. A supermarket by definition is a store, where you are allowed to take a basket and shop. We are catering to over 25,000 people every day in all the stores put together which adds up to 7 to 10 lakh customers every month. We are not a premium supermarket but also not at the lower end of the spectrum. We relate to stores like Walmart, Target, and Carrefour,” says Anoop.

This year, the plan is to open 14 more stores in Bengaluru.

ROYAL SCHOLARSHIPS

Royal Mart has launched an initiative to engage with its younger customers and instil in them the values of family, community, and the environment. This campaign is open to all and offers guaranteed prizes with minimal effort required to participate. The events and scholarship campaigns are organised for students studying in schools within Bengaluru City limits. There are prizes for students from 1st to 12th standard, aiming to appreciate and encourage them to become well-rounded individuals. The focus is not only on academic achievements but also on sports, arts, music, dance, literary pursuits, and social initiatives.

Naseer KK, Managing Director of Royal Mart, says, “The idea is to appreciate and encourage little children to be all-rounders, instilling positive value systems towards family and society as a whole.”

The scholarships are divided into different categories, including annual monthly payouts of Rs 20,000, Rs 15,000, and Rs 10,000 for students in 12th, 11th, and 10th grade respectively. There are also one-time scholarship vouchers of Rs 3000, Rs 2000, and Rs 1000. Additionally, by participating in any of the small activities, students have a chance to win a guaranteed scholarship voucher of Rs 100. The aim is to make everyone feel like a winner and a superhero.

To participate, students need to show a minimum purchase bill worth Rs 100 or more from any of the 30 Royal Mart stores issued after 10th May 2023. Only one application per student or candidate will be accepted, and multiple applications from different stores will be disqualified.

Interested students can collect the scholarship application forms from any Royal Mart store and submit them before 15th June 2023 to the same store.

SHOWERS & SOIREES

PLUMP droplets of rain splashed down on our well coiffured hair, and by the time the squealing masses took cover, the raindrops turned into hailstones accompanied by gusts of wind that literally blew us off our feet.

This is the ooru I knew! Never let the weather set you back. I remember being at an intimate food tasting at Fatty Bao, a quintessential South-East Asian place that has opened at my neck of the woods. The maverick hotelier AD Singh was our host and most of the invitees knew him from way back. So when the atmosphere is genial and full of banter, there is nothing better than to eat and drink in the company of your peers who are knowledgeable about what they are eating. I remember fanning myself desperately with a menu card and ultimately a big cooling device was wheeled into an air-conditioned room! 'Twas the very same evening that I heard the wind and hailstones battering against my windows, and I said a little prayer of thanks.

The next evening was party time and I had got into the mood of things.

There was a pop-up of Guppy-Pops from Delhi. Since Fatty Bao is just a building away from where I live and since it was my friend AD who insisted I come the following day too…I went. Retro music resonated as we made our way through the doors. The PYT's (pretty young things) and the POT's (pretty old things) vied for attention. I must admit that the slightly older men made the most noise and it was refreshing, because we usually blame the ladies. The party had the right mix of people and the service of food and ambrosia was spot on. It was great spending time with a slice of genteel Bangalore.

I make no bones about the fact that I like the better things in life. I mean, who doesn't? I was very thrilled that namma ooru was the first city in India to welcome the swanky Ritz-Carlton franchise. Again since I live in CBD, we would often espy hectic activity going on near the hotel. It was a very peek-a-boo situation and our curiosity was whetted with a dekko. The guestlist for the grand opening was very exclusive and we heard many rumours of certain socialites being extra 'palsy' with the team responsible for the invitations. I loved all the hullabaloo as I adopted my 'fly-on-the-wall' status to observe all the FOMO, angst, and triumphs of the swish set of Bangalore. They had walkie-talkie sets where they communicated amongst themselves if a guest had arrived or approaching.

Very impressed indeed!

Thankfully they have put aside all the extra froufrou and I was greeted warmly as we entered the hotel to partake in the GlenFiddich whiskey paired dinner. Thanks to Cardi-V and other commitments I hadn't visited the hotel in some time. But both Angad Singh Gandhi, the brand ambassador for GlenFiddich and GM Ritz-Carlton George Kuruvilla, are dear friends and one must always be present for the premiere moments in their journey. It was a delightful dinner with chef Anupam pulling out of the stops and Angad regaling us with anecdotes and titbits about the whiskey. A small soiree impeccably pulled off.

Small things done are better than great things just planned.

BHAIRATHI Ranagal, directed by Narthan and featuring Shivarajkumar in the lead role, was officially launched on Friday. Producer Geetha Sivarajkumar, who is bankrolling the film under the Geetha Pictures banner, attended the muhurath along with her daughter Niveditha Shivarajkumar, KP Srikanth, and the rest of the film crew.

The character of Bhairathi Ranagal, portrayed by Shivarajkumar in the 2017 film Mufti, continues to have a lasting impact on the audience. This new story revolves around the origins of the character and serves as a prequel to Mufti. The makers also announced the technical crew, with Ravi Basrur handling the music direction, Naveen Kumar taking charge of cinematography, and Shivakumar serving as the art director.

Expressing his excitement about reprising his favourite character, Bhairati Ranagal, Shivarajkumar says, "It has been six years since Mufti but the character remains close to my heart. Narthan has crafted an engaging story. Since it is a prequel, my appearance will be different too."

We thought a prequel would be a good choice: Narthan

After the blockbuster success of Mufti, director Narthan received several offers but decided to proceed slowly. Bhairathi Ranagal was initially meant to be his second project, but due to his commitment to a film with Yash, it got delayed. However, all's well that ends well, and Narthan is back with Bhairathi Ranagal. "I had already committed to Bhairathi Ranagal and had even received an advance. Initially, it was planned to be Shivanna's 125th film, but I got busy with scripting a film for Yash, and this project got postponed."

Regarding spending a few years on a project with Yash that didn't materialise, Narthan says, "Even Yash didn't take up any other projects. We both had confidence in our journey, and we were content. However, the story we had written had similarities to other released films, so we decided to change it. I will still work with Yash, but it will take some time," says Narthan, who acknowledges that both Shivanna and Yash have always provided opportunities and encouraged him as a director.

Reflecting on the past five years, Narthan shares, "I have enjoyed the writing process. Patience, solitude, the gap between projects, and the time during COVID allowed me to observe how cinema became universal. Accordingly, we need to adapt our stories and direction."

Narthan expresses his excitement about working under the reputed banner, and about returning behind the camera, stating, "As a director, I was never out of a job. I was involved in my profession, constantly writing. I just hadn't directed a film, but that will change on June 10."

When asked about his thoughts on prequels, which have become a trend in Kannada cinema, Narthan explains, "Since we didn't explore Bhairathi's past much in Mufti, we thought a prequel would be a good choice. Some stories naturally demand a prequel. Shivanna will go back approximately six years in Bhairathi Ranagal." The film will be shot in locations including Mysuru, Bengaluru, and Bellary.

A still from the film

TARAK Ponnappa, an established actor in the Kannada film industry, is no stranger to Telugu cinema. The actor, recognised for his roles in movies like KGF Chapter 1 and 2, Kotigobba 3, and James, has starred in several Telugu projects, including CSI Sanatan, Vinnaro Bhagyam Vishnu, Katha, and the upcoming films The 100 and Krishnamma. He is now thrilled to have got a big break with Jr NTR's upcoming film, Devera, directed by Koratala Siva. The actor has already started shooting and completed five days on the sets. Giving us a glimpse of his character, he reveals that he plays an important role with a negative shade.

Reportedly, it was an assistant director of The 100, who recommended him to the NTR-Koratala Siva team. "I play an alpha male, someone who always gets what he wants, which is interesting from a commercial perspective," he says.

Tarak Ponnappa is overwhelmed to have the opportunity to interact with Jr NTR and work alongside actors like Saif Ali Khan and Jhanvi Kapoor. He describes Jr NTR as humble with no starry airs. "I am looking forward to conversing with Jr NTR in Kannada, as he is also well-versed in the language," says Tarak, who also talks about his breakthrough in Telugu. "I have also been offered significant roles in prominent Kannada films, but I wasn't convinced. However, when it came to this role, it convinced me, and I have the right amount of screen time that I actually need. This character isn't just a passing role; it offers ample scope for performance. I am confident about how this character will turn out," says Tarak.

Regarding his Kannada projects, Tarak Ponappa is currently considering scripts and receiving offers for lead roles. "People should recognise the actor in me, not just my physique and appearance, and that's how I approach choosing my roles," he says.

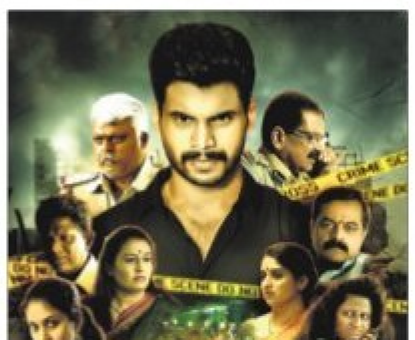
A slow-paced thriller

A SHARADHAA

EVERY aspiring actor wants their debut film to be unique, and it is this pursuit that brought Praveer Shetty to Siren. In contrast to the run-of-the-mill commercial entertainers, the debutant actor opted for a suspense thriller. The film, which stars the actor as a cop, also serves as the directorial debut of Raja Venkaiah.

Siren draws inspiration from a heinous real-life incident in Andhra Pradesh. The story begins with a worried mother (Pavithra Lokesh) arriving at the station with her younger daughter, seeking help in finding her bank employee elder daughter Swetha, who has not returned home. She seeks help from the police, who behave irresponsibly towards the case. After a long wait, they are only met with indifference. Finally, a cop Chandra Bose (Sharath Lohitashwa) finds Swetha's burnt body. Chandra Bose takes on the investigation but meets with a fatal accident.

RATING 2.5/5



SIREN

Director: Raja Venkaiah

Cast: Praveer Shetty, Lasya Ponnu Ashi, Achyuth Kumar, and Sharath Lohitashwa

Meanwhile, Police Commissioner Ashok Kumar (Avinash) looks out for an efficient officer to investigate Swetha's mysterious death. They recommend Samarth (Praveer Shetty), a young police inspector who recently joined the force. This marks Samarth's first case, and the film then revolves around what happens to him, and his investigation, which is brought to the fore with a lot of twists and turns.

Director Raja Venkaiah has made an attempt to create an interesting film with Siren but falls short. While the film does have an intriguing plot that revolves around how innocent people are trapped in a case, there are several scenes that lack credibility and logic. For example, an all-important revelation about Samarth isn't fleshed out properly nor is it timed well. The way certain police officers are portrayed, especially their dressing style, decorum, and discipline, leaves a lot to be desired. While Siren symbolises the rushing police van, the plot moves at a rather slow pace, and doesn't become the thrilling experience it wants to be. A crisper screenplay could have made Siren a solid launch for Praveer. While his dialogue delivery is decent, Praveer does have to further develop his acting skills. Lasya Ponnu Ashi's role in the movie is confined to running alongside other police officers, limiting her impact on the screen. While Pavithra Lokesh delivers a restrained performance, Sharath Lohitashwa provides commendable support within the constraints of the film. Achyuth Kumar, who has recently been associated with grey shades, delivers a good performance that leaves a lasting impression. Sparsha Rekha, known for her portrayal of moderate characters, takes on a negative shade in this film, showcasing her versatility. The film's drawbacks include the absence of a heroins, songs, apart from a special number featuring Yashika Anand, and the lack of comedic elements to break the monotony of the narration.

Summing up, there's no doubt that Praveer Shetty has taken a risk with his debut, but Siren turns out to be a routine thriller. However, the film does serve as a crucial stepping stone for the debutant affording him the opportunity to learn and grow from his first cinematic endeavour.

'I only work with people I trust'

KASHYAP first noticed Sunny in the rather infamous and much-publicised television interview where she received a lot of support for handling judgmental and probing questions that were thrown at her with grace and dignity. "I was blown away, and wondered if she would audition," says Kashyap, who believes she gave her everything to the test, which was an indication of her seriousness of intent. Kashyap is extremely confident about his two leads. "I am very nepotistic. I only work with people I trust. They might not be family, but they become family," says the Raman Raghav 2.0 filmmaker.

As is usual with a Kashyap film, even if nothing else hits the mark, the music always does. Kennedy coasts along on the songs of Aamir Aziz and Boyblanck aka Raghav Bhatia, and the background score by the City of Prague Philharmonic Orchestra conducted by Adam Klemens. It also marks a return to the genre that his fans love—dark crime thriller. "Every time I have tried something that I've not done before, they write my obituary," laughs Kashyap, adding, "If my fans had a way, I'd only be making crime films. I am ready to do that if they come to theatres. But my films are either celebrated after their OTT release or turn out to be 'download hits'."

So, what makes Kennedy different within the genre? "It is a character piece that started with this character and the five-night story that got built around him. It was fermented and sieved through him. It is less sensational and moodier," shares Kashyap, who credits his peers Sriram Raghavan, Vikramaditya Motwane, and Abhishek Chaubey among others for giving him the right feedback and criticism to ensure he was ruthless with the editing.

For someone well-versed in the festival circuit, Kashyap always wanted Kennedy to play in the Midnight Madness section at Cannes. In fact, he knew about the selection just a few hours before the official announcement and was the last to submit the film's DCP (Digital Cinema Package) to the festival. "If I had not made it to Cannes, I would have aimed to take the film to the Midnight Madness section of the Toronto International Film Festival." With practically the entire team of the film—whoever could get the passport and visa on time—in attendance, Kashyap confessed that his aim has been to "corrupt" the minds of the young filmmakers in a good way. "When they come and watch great films, they get motivated. When Motwane came with Devdas, he saw Ken Loach and went back to make Udaan. When Neeraj Ghaywan came for Wasseypur, he immediately went back and wrote Masaan," says Kashyap.

Interestingly, the screening left Kashyap feeling anxious. When asked why it is so even after so many films and accolades behind him, he had a straightforward response. "The film is playing in the Grand Theatre Lumiere, and as per the protocols, the director can't get up and wait outside during the screening. Seeing people fidget or walk out can give me a heart attack. If it was upto me, I'd have gone out, had four drinks, and come back for the end of the film." But why the stress at all? "It's the search for universality in a film that is context-based. How do you translate the context to people outside the country, who are not going to be interested or invested in specificities?" observes Kashyap, adding, "Cinephiles do not always know the political landscape of any country. They are just inside their laptops watching films." After the screening of the film, the initial reactions have been tepid. The reviews have been middling, and the real film, about the tug of the father-daughter relationship, does seem to get lost in the chaos of killings and indulgent design. But as always, Anurag Kashyap, and of course, the fantastic soundtrack, just play on and move to the next universe...
